- Prior to withdrawing, contact the Bursar's Office (Willard-DiLoreto Hall W212, 860-832-2010, billing-bursar@ccsu.edu) and, if you are a financial aid recipient, the Financial Aid Office (Willard-DiLoreto Hall W208, 860-832-2200, finaid@ccsu.edu) to discuss any financial implications of withdrawing.

In the withdrawal process, I promise to pay Central Connecticut State University, its agents or contractors, any indebtedness which I have incurred. Additionally, I realize a withdrawal status may affect certain federal and state benefits, various financial aid programs, loans, scholarships, and social security benefits. Satisfactory Academic Progress requirements must be met for continued financial aid eligibility. Exit interviews are required of all recipients of student loans.

Leave of Absence Option (Undergraduate Students Only)

A University Withdrawal with a Leave of Absence is a period of withdrawal from CCSU for up to two consecutive semesters (fall/spring). During this time a student maintains his/her matriculation and is entitled to return to CCSU without requiring readmission. Please note: A withdrawal with a leave of absence is not a federally approved leave and could impact the grace period for student loan repayment. Standard tuition and fee refund policies apply to students who withdraw with a leave of absence.
