During the reporting period, the affirmative action staff at Central Connecticut State University (CCSU) was led by Dr. Craig Wright, Vice President of Equity and Inclusion. The staff of CCSU’s Equity and Inclusion Office consists of the following: Jill Bassett-Cameron, Senior Equity and Inclusion Officer/Title IX Coordinator; Erin Rodas, Equity and Inclusion Associate; and Claudia Richards-Meade, Equity and Inclusion Associate. The office address for the Office of Equity & Inclusion (OEI) is 1615 Stanley St., Davidson Hall, Room 119, New Britain, CT 06050-4010. The telephone number for Dr. Wright is 860.832.0178 and his email address is craig.wright@ccsu.edu. All communications concerning Equal Employment Opportunity/Affirmative Action identifies the Vice President for the Office of Equity and Inclusion by name and address.

CCSU disseminates its Equal Employment Opportunity/Affirmative Action Policy as required. The University's Affirmative Action/Equal Employment Opportunity Policy, CCSU’s policy on Sexual Harassment, and the Nondiscrimination in Education and Employment are distributed annually to all employees via email transmission which is globally distributed. The Affirmative Action/Equal Employment Opportunity Policy Statement, Nondiscrimination in Education and Employment Policy, the BOR/CSCU Sexual Misconduct Reporting, Supportive Measures, and Processes Policy, and the CCSU complaint procedures and timetables are also posted on the OEI’s web page at http://www.ccsu.edu/diversity/ and are accessible to applicants, employees, and students.

A summary of the objectives and goals set forth in the Affirmative Action Plan are made available to the president, all vice presidents, chief officers, deans, directors, department heads, managers, and supervisors for distribution to all employees. Copies of the Affirmative Action Plan are maintained and stored in the Office of Equity and Inclusion and the Office of the President. The final approved Affirmative Action Plan is made available to all employees for their review on the University’s website, and the above-mentioned locations. The period of review is no less than sixty (60) days (See copy of letter specifying the period of review in Supportive Materials).

All employees are given written notice that they may review and comment on the Affirmative Action Plan. The employees are instructed to address all comments to the Vice President for the Office of Equity & Inclusion. A file is kept on all affirmative action related internal communications and comments received throughout the reporting period. Any new comments will be placed in this file and the dates such statements are received will be noted. The Affirmative Action Plan will report a summary of all employee comments and agency responses in each filing. No comments were received during this reporting period.

Activity during this Reporting Period

The Affirmative Action Plan was made available for all employees to review and comment. Employees were notified on March 8, 2023, where copies of the Plan were located, the period of review, and the dates within which they may submit comments regarding the Plan.

and Sexual Misconduct Complaints as well as the University’s 2022-2023 hiring, promotion, and program goals can be accessed through the website at http://www.ccsu.edu/Diversity/.

The President’s Executive Committee was informed on affirmative action recruiting, hiring, and promotional efforts, as well as updates on affirmative action and non-discrimination law. The Affirmative Action/Equal Employment Opportunity Policy Statement and the Sexual Misconduct Policy, as well as program information and progress reports are presented to the committee yearly (see attached agendas in the Supportive Materials section).

The Vice President for the Office of Equity & Inclusion, met with the deans on a regular basis to discuss the policies, procedures and progress pertaining to affirmative action, in addition to their responsibility to aid in effectively implementing these policies. The Vice President for the Office of Equity & Inclusion (OEI) will continue to meet with the Executive Committee regarding the affirmative action plan and related diversity and inclusion programs.

The Vice President of OEI or the Equity and Inclusion Associates provided the human resources staff, search committees and the Promotion and Tenure Committee with a periodic update of the status of hiring and promotion goal achievement, in addition to reminding these individuals of their responsibility to make every good faith effort to achieve the hiring and promotion goals when the opportunity occurs. The staff for OEI will continue to meet with human resources and staff to encourage them to continue to achieve affirmative action hiring goals and to diversify the faculty and staff.

Meeting with Search Committees

The Vice President for Equity & Inclusion Office as well as the Equity and Inclusion Associates met with all search committees seeking to fill unclassified vacancies to discuss the search procedures, affirmative action goals, recruitment strategies, evaluation of candidates, and non-discriminatory interviewing. They also updated the affirmative action plan forms, instructions for search committees, and the pre-employment inquiry guidelines distributed to the search committees. The OEI staff answered numerous inquiries from the search committees throughout the year related to the search procedures.

New Employee Orientations

The Human Resources Office directs all new employees to the Central Connecticut State University sign up portal on the HR website. This website is dedicated to providing new employees information regarding the University including: the University Mission Statement, Statement on Affirmative Action/Equal Employment Opportunity, Sexual Harassment Policy, Health and Life Insurance, as well as personnel policies relating to compensation, attendance, and career mobility. This website is regularly updated to reflect changes in policies and procedures.

During the reporting period, OEI provided all new employees copies of the Affirmative Action/Equal Employment Policy Statement, Central Connecticut State University (CCSU) Sexual Misconduct Policy, the CCSU Intimate Partner Violence and Sexual Misconduct Complaints Harassment Complaints, and the information on students with disabilities services. AA/EEO policies have been provided to new employees during new employee orientation throughout the reporting period. Newly hired faculty members were also presented with these policies during New Faculty Orientation. In addition, staff of the Office of Equity & Inclusion met with the new faculty and staff at the beginning of the Fall semester to provide them with President Toro’s objectives in the areas of Equity and Inclusion and University policies.

The Office of Marketing & Communications includes articles and pictures related to the activities and accomplishments in University publications as well as in the media of underrepresented group members who are part of the University community. This office publishes articles in The Recorder featuring...
Affirmative Action/Equal Employment Opportunity, diversity programs, and reports on the promotions of minority group members. In addition, the office sends out updates via email with faculty, staff, and student achievements.

Programs offered by Office of Victim Advocacy (OVA)

Put the Nail In It Campaign https://www.safehorizon.org/put-the-nail-in-it/

In the fall semester of 2022, OVA led the #PuttheNailinIt campaign. It is a project dedicated to bringing awareness to prevalence of domestic violence victims. Created by the brand Safe Horizon. Its mission is to provide support, prevent violence and promote justice for victims of domestic violence. In this campaign, students would take a vow promising to take their part in ending domestic violence and not staying silent. There were 5 tablings in the student center throughout the fall of 2022 in which the CCSU community members signed a pledge and/or painted one of their fingernails purple, to show their support for victims of domestic violence. Additionally, the local YWCA and Prudence Crandall Center tabled alongside the OVA to show students our collaborative effort with the community and have the community see individuals who work at these organizations face to face.

The Clothesline Project https://theclotheslineproject.org/

OVA organized and implemented the Clothesline Project in the Spring of 2023. The Clothesline Project is a visual display that bears witness to the violence against women. During the public display, a clothesline is hung with shirts. Each shirt is decorated to represent a particular woman’s experience, by the survivor herself or by someone who cares about her. This project is done to help with the healing process for people who have lost a loved one or are survivors of this violence; to educate, document and raise society’s awareness of the extent of the problem of violence against women; and to provide a nationwide network of support, encouragement and information for other communities starting their own Clothesline Project. The OVA worked with teams, classes and the CCSU community at large to decorate shirts which were later displayed at a full day event in Willard-DiLoreto Hall.

Denim Day https://denimday.org/

Denim Day activities were facilitated by OVA in the Spring of 2023. This campaign began after a ruling by the Italian Supreme Court where a rape conviction was overturned because the justices felt that since the victim was wearing tight jeans, she must have helped the person who raped her remove her jeans, thereby implying consent. The following day, the women in the Italian Parliament came to work wearing jeans in solidarity with the victim. Denim Day is now recognized worldwide, and the OVA organized for the CCSU community to participate and wear jeans to stand in solidarity with rape victims. Additionally, there were 5 tablings held throughout the spring semester to raise awareness regarding this campaign.

Diversity Training Sessions

CCSU worked with the CSCU (Connecticut State Colleges and University) system to establish training through the NEOED Learn platform. This allowed for a three-hour online Diversity Training to be offered to CCSU faculty and staff during the 2022-2023 academic year. In addition, in person training was also implemented with the assistance of the CSCU EEO Center for Excellence. The in-person training is a two-hour interactive program after which attendees are required to successfully complete a virtual one-hour training through NEOED Learn on understanding and preventing microaggressions.
During the reporting period a total of 161 new faculty and staff members including lecturers were introduced to Diversity training. Every diversity training includes the following: protected definitions; policies and laws; ADA accommodations; hate crimes; understanding and preventing microaggressions; internal complaint procedures; and external complaint agencies.

New Faculty Orientation
At new faculty orientation, new faculty members were provided with information on sexual harassment, nondiscrimination, ADA, and sexual misconduct policies, and complaint procedures.

During the reporting period a designee from the Office of Equity & Inclusion provided information on sexual harassment, nondiscrimination, ADA, and sexual misconduct policies, and complaint procedures. During the Fall 2022, the Vice President of Equity and Inclusion and the Sexual Assault and Violence Prevention Specialist met with new faculty members and provided information on the Office of Equity & Inclusion.

Title IX and Sexual Harassment Prevention Training
The BOR/CSCU requires that all employees receive Title IX (including sexual harassment prevention) training which includes knowledge of definitions, policies, laws, and scenarios. This on-going/annual mandate continues to enhance our campus’ effectiveness in ensuring we are a campus free from workplace and educational discrimination.

Title IX Hearing Board
2022-2023 Title IX Hearing Board members completed the CSU mandated 8 hours of SCI SUNY training as well as an in-person mock hearing, organized and facilitated by the Title IX Coordinator with SART stakeholders.

There are three pathways for our community to receive training to reach university wide compliance:

- Online Training NeoGOV - All CCSU Employees
- In-Person Training on Title IX and sexual harassment- all student athletes, coaches, RAs, Ols, GAs, GIs, and as requested for other populations.
- Online Training through Vector Solutions called Sexual Violence Prevention- All CCSU Students

Online Training NeoGOV
During the summer of 2022 NEOLEARN/NeoGOV was implemented and sexual harassment training through this platform initially began with the 22/23 academic year. All faculty and staff have access to an on-line Title IX training, which can be taken annually. We will continue to train and onboard all new faculty & staff as well. OEI is responsible for sending reminders and instructions to reach university wide compliance. As of late July 2023, CCSU faculty and staff have completed this training at an 87% completion rate.

In-Person Training on Title IX and sexual harassment

In June of 2022, staff members Dr. Jill Bassett-Cameron and Lindsey Hammell redesigned the Title IX and sexual harassment training for a variety of audience members. This training includes learning outcomes, interactive conversations, videos, and more emphasis on definitions, reporting, supportive measures, and the formal and informal process regarding Title IX situations. The trainings include an evaluation with QR code to provide feedback.

The Residence Life Department requires that all Residence Assistants (RAs) attend a Title IX and Sexual Misconduct training. This training was facilitated by Office of Equity and Inclusion staff, led by the Title IX Coordinator. Other populations that included an in-person training were the Orientation Leaders and Graduate Interns/Assistants.

Dr. Bassett-Cameron and Ms. Hammell have set goals for the 2022-2023 academic year which are to educate 10% of the faculty body, all athletic staff, and athletes, as well as all residence life staff.

Online Training through Vector Solutions called Sexual Violence Prevention

For the 2022-2023 academic year, all Undergraduate students enrolled at CCSU were required to complete the Sexual Violence Prevention training through Vector Solutions. First year students received the initial training called 'Sexual Violence Prevention Training for Undergraduate Students' (formerly Not Anymore). Each student enrolled at CCSU after year one, received a refresher training related to sexual violence such as sexual violence, bystander intervention, verbal defense & relationships. Additionally, all Graduate Students were also required to participate in a primary training through Vector Solutions called 'Sexual Violence Prevention Training for Graduate Students'. 3,268 students completed the training module for this academic year.

OVA is responsible for sending reminders and instructions to students, to reach university wide compliance. Additionally, OVA works with larger departments such as RAs, OLs, and student athletes to encourage their students to complete the trainings.

Trainings

There were 49 trainings related to Title IX and Sexual Misconduct that were completed in person by OVA and OEI staff during the August 2022-July 2023:

Other Internal Communications:

Campaigns, University website, Job postings including EEO statement, posters including EEO statement, Sexual Harassment Posters: In almost every building, the University’s posters regarding sexual harassment are placed in acrylic holders. Along with each poster, we place information cards for people to take with them. We continually fill these on a monthly basis.
Dear Colleagues:

The Office for Equity and Inclusion invites all employees to read and review the CCSU's Affirmative Action Plan. OEI is the office designated with the responsibility and authority to administer and monitor our affirmative action program. Copies are available on-line at Affirmative Action Plan or in the Office for Equity & Inclusion, Davidson Hall, Room 119.

The Office for Equity & Inclusion welcomes any comments and/or suggestions you might have regarding the Affirmative Action Plan and how we might be more successful in achieving Affirmative Action goals. Employees must submit their comments no later than June 1, 2023, so that the comments can be incorporated into the University’s submission of its 2023 Affirmative Action Plan.

For information relating to the University’s policy on affirmative action, please visit the department’s web page at the Office for Equity and Inclusion. The web page contains the following resources:

Affirmative Action/Equal Opportunity Policy Statement
Nondiscrimination in Education and Employment Policy
BOR Sexual Misconduct Policy
ADA Policy
CCSU Procedures and Timetables for Processing of Discrimination and Sexual Harassment Complaints

The signed copy of the Affirmative Action/Equal Employment Opportunity Policy Statement is on file in the Office for Equity & Inclusion, Davidson Hall, Room 119. Should you have any questions, please feel free to contact the office at 860-832-1652.

Sincerely,

Craig J. Wright

Dear Central family,

Here we are at the start of the Fall 2022 semester, coming off of an uplifting opening weekend and first day of classes, and I am so grateful to those of you who came together to make it possible!

Resident students moved in, the Deans Toast and Convocation welcomed and celebrated our new students, and Kizer’s Kickoff provided an evening of fun and entertainment for all.

And, yes, we have evidence that our new Vice President for Student Affairs Kellie Byrd Danso (center) and Special Assistant to the Provost Carmen Veloria (left) were more than willing to join the Blue Devil in a kick-off dance.

Let us keep this wave of enthusiasm going! A positive educational environment benefits us all.

As we move farther away from peak pandemic conditions, I am optimistic our campus will become the vibrant, welcoming environment we want it to be.

Many of you, from nearly every division and all academic schools, had a hand in making Opening Weekend a success. You have my deepest appreciation for going above and beyond to make the start of this academic year a memorable one. Now, let’s continue the teamwork and keep the momentum going!
Sincerely,
Zulma R. Toro
President
Dear Central family,

We received formal notice today that the CCSU Drop-In Child Care Center has received state licensure, and its doors will officially open on Monday.

The Center, located in the lower level of Carroll Hall adjacent to the Willard-DiLoreto Complex and garage, will offer free services to student-parents who are registered to attend classes. If space permits, faculty and staff will be welcome to register their child, though a fee for the service would be required.

The Center’s team has developed high-quality, developmentally appropriate educational and enrichment experiences for children from age 3 to 12 years old. Information about the curriculum, teaching philosophy, and other program details are available on this web page: www.ccsu.edu/childcare/ and you can watch this video for an overview of the Center.

Registration for Fall 2022 is required and that process is now underway. Online registration materials, instructions, and other important enrollment information are available at this link or contact Director Kelly McCarthy at (860) 832-2125 or at kellymccarthy@ccsu.edu.

On behalf of our students, I am immensely grateful to the faculty and staff who have worked diligently for more than a decade to make this a reality.

Sincerely,

Zulma R. Toro
President
Dear Central Family,

Now that the new academic year is underway, please join me for the Opening Meeting on Tuesday, Sept. 27 at 2 p.m. in the Student Center’s Alumni Hall. I look forward to highlighting your achievements, announcing the recipient of this year’s Distinguished Service Award, and mapping our path forward as we strive to better serve our students and our communities.

Following my presentation, please stay for refreshments and an opportunity to socialize with our colleagues.

I hope to see you there!

Sincerely,

Zulma R. Toro
President
Dear Central family,

Last summer, we announced the launch of the Maximizing Our Students’ Success Through Engagement (MOS²TE) committee, tasked with transitioning the Federal Work-Study program into a high-impact program designed to deepen the connection between students and the Central community through mentorships and professional opportunities on campus. The emphasis on providing enhanced experiential learning and work experience should improve retention among our low-income students.

Thanks to your input, MOS²TE drafted a new policy for work-study students that meets the parameters of the Federal Work-study Financial Aid program, and it has since received approval from the Executive leadership team. Paul J. Rossitto, director of the Career Success Center, will oversee its implementation.

The new policy will enable students who receive federal work-study funds to be best matched with a paid position on campus that is meaningful to them or relates to their academic program. Departments that hire work-study students will contribute 10 percent of the student’s wages, which will post to the department’s DPS budget bi-weekly. We will provide departmental supervisors with professional development opportunities designed to enhance their students’ supervisory and mentoring skills. This approach increases the total work-study funds available to students and ensures students will receive the highest quality work experience.

To take advantage of this opportunity, please complete this form. Additional information can be found on the Career Development Office web page at www.ccsu.edu/csc/. All work-study-eligible students need to be hired by Monday, Oct. 3, for the Fall semester, and there is a limited number of work-study eligible students.

This program reflects the ever-expanding range of services that fall under our Blanket of Support initiative, which offers our students wellness, mentoring, and career development programs to boost academic success, retention, and career-readiness. Recent studies indicate that students who work on campus perform better academically and are more likely to complete their studies. What’s more, students who undertake work-study employment are better prepared for the workplace after they graduate. I encourage you to take advantage of this mutually beneficial opportunity!

Sincerely,

Zulma R. Toro
President
Dear Central Family,

As promised at the Opening Meeting on Tuesday, I am pleased to announce the recipients of our first round of Next Generation of Student Success, Diversity, Innovation, and Community Engagement grants.

Members of the grant review committee told me they received many, many impressive proposals, which made task of selecting the winners especially challenging. Thank you for such an enthusiastic and positive response to the call for proposals.

The Next Generation grant program encourages faculty to develop and implement innovative projects that will cultivate connection with students, our partners in business and industry, and the communities we serve. Initiatives support faculty integration of activities and new pedagogical approaches in a manner that positively impacts CCSU and the greater community. Next week, the grant review committee will send out its next call for proposals.

For this inaugural round, the following proposals were fully or partially funded, ranging between $450 and $30,000 per grant.

Innovative Technology

- Building an XR Pedagogic Innovations Fellows program by Drew Harris
- Pilot Cyber Range by Thomas King and Chad Williams
- Mixed Reality Simulation Therapy: A new approach to developing clinical competence in couples therapy by Tatiana Melendez-Rhodes
- Development of the Advanced Robotics for Manufacturing Innovation Space (ARMIS) piloted with two robotic automation projects with the manufacturing and medical industry by Haoyu Wang

Expanding our High School Pipelines

- DEEP STEM: Discover Enjoy Explore and Practice Science Technology Engineering and Mathematics by Luz Amaya, David Broderick, Michele Dischino, Mark Jackson, Stan Kurkovsky, Peter LeMaire, Viktoria Savatorova, Jessica Smith, Jeffrey Thomas, and Barry Westcott
- Enhancing the Manufacturing, Engineering, and Technology partnership between Central Connecticut State University and New Britain High School by Lawrence Rudnick
- Pipeline from High Schools to Careers in Public Safety by Julie Schnobrich-Davis, Eric
Dlugolenski, and Byung Lee

Dear Central Family,

Homecoming Weekend is here! The fun has already begun with last night’s Athletics Hall of Fame induction ceremony. Tonight, our alumni will get together for their annual Homecoming reunion, and I look forward to seeing our extended Blue Devil family at the Back Nine Tavern.

I know the football fans among us are geared up for Saturday’s game against Brown University (kickoff is at 1 p.m.), but I hope you will join us beforehand for the Family Fun Fest at Up-the-Hill Quad, starting at 10 a.m.

For those who can’t get enough sports in one weekend, consider stopping by one of three scrimmages we’ve scheduled throughout Saturday morning, starting with the Softball Alumni Scrimmage at 10 a.m. The Baseball Alumni Scrimmage begins at 10:30 a.m., and at 11 a.m. Coach Sellers will host a Men’s Basketball Scrimmage at Kaiser Gym.

Make sure to check the Homecoming web page at https://www2.ccsu.edu/homecoming for full details on all of these great events!

It’s going to be a great weekend at Central. Come join us in celebrating the Central family and our legacy of student success!

Sincerely,

Zulma R. Toro

Dear Central Family,

On Saturday, we hosted a Graduate Open House, and it was quite a festive and enjoyable day! Willard-DiLoreto Hall was packed with curious prospective students, and the campus community turned out in force to answer their questions and give them a first-hand sense of the CCSU spirit.

It was wonderful to see such a strong showing of faculty and staff, and it was a pleasure to see our student volunteers working among them. I think we can all agree that they are excellent ambassadors for this University!

Saturday’s event demonstrated to me that we are at our best when we work as a team. Together, we can demonstrate to new students what makes Central so special: Our outstanding faculty and staff and our commitment to student success. I firmly believe this level of collaboration is a surefire way to achieve our enrollment goals and bolster our University's reputation in the process.

Please accept my sincere gratitude for being part our winning team and making this Open House event so successful!

Thank you!

Sincerely,
To the CCSU Community,

During a recent and productive meeting, the CCSU AAUP Executive Committee and President Toro agreed to strengthen our resolve in upholding the principles of shared governance as a means to sustain the viability of the University and ensure the success of our students.

AAUP, both nationally and at the CSUs, have long supported shared governance (See the preamble to the CSU-AAUP/BoR Contract and the 1966 AAUP Statement on Government of Colleges and Universities).

The Faculty Senate is the body that facilitates the implementation of shared governance. Faculty are selected by representatives of the appropriate university constituencies. Matters of concern to the Senate include: (a) curriculum policy and curricular structure, (b) requirements for degrees and granting of degrees, (c) policies for recruitment, admission, and retention of students, (d) academic policies relating to students, (e) other matters of campus community concern.

Faculty and the administration are partners in governance and agree that shared governance is critical in identifying the best and most productive course of action to accomplishing the University’s common goals.

AAUP and CCSU pledge to cooperate in improving the shared governance climate at CCSU. The concrete steps that will be taken are:

- Members of the CCSU administration will communicate and discuss with the appropriate shared governance committee in advance of a significant change in policy to those matters which have shared responsibilities (listed above). Adequate communication among faculty, the University administration (and the BoR) is essential. Significant changes to university organization affecting those matters will also be communicated and discussed.

- The CCSU administration will revisit decisions that have been made about alternate PINs for student registration and the graduate school with the relevant standing committees of the faculty.

- Measurable outcomes of policy changes will be transparent, with shared data collected and discussed with relevant faculty committees before any policy changes, and those outcomes will be reported to the committee.

- The CCSU administration will give faculty full opportunity for appropriate joint planning and effort and promote and maintain a collegial approach to governance.
• Faculty will work to carry out our duties in the most professional manner possible.

• Decisions requiring feedback from departments and department chairs will allow at least two weeks for consultation with their faculty. Feedback from all faculty and departments will be meaningfully considered.

Sincerely,

Zulma R. Toro

Dear Central Family,

As some of you may know, our University is a proud First-Gen Forward Institution, a distinction we earned earlier this year from the national Center for First-Generation Student Success. The designation recognizes institutions of higher education that have demonstrated a commitment to improving experiences and advancing outcomes of first-generation college students.

There are many reasons to celebrate our work on behalf of first-generation students, who make up over 40 percent of CCSU’s enrolled undergraduates. I hope you will join us on Tuesday, November 8, for the National First-Generation College Celebration, an annual event coordinated by the Center for First-Generation Student Success. Educators and their colleagues across the country will host concurrent celebrations to recognize the successes of their own first-generation college students, faculty, staff, and alumni.

CCSU’s November 8 celebration will be held in Alumni Hall from 2 to 4 p.m. Attendees will be welcome to take advantage of photo opportunities and enjoy refreshments before the main program begins, led by Vice President for Student Affairs, Dr. Kellie Byrd Danso and Associate Vice President for Academic Affairs, Dr. Carmen Veloria.

Drs. Byrd Danso and Veloria will share some exciting details about new and upcoming first-generation student initiatives and host a panel discussion with a group of CCSU first-generation students, staff, faculty, and alumni.

I hope you will join the conversation and take a moment to celebrate with us. If you plan to attend, please register at www.ccsu.edu/FirstGenCelebration/.

Sincerely,
Dear Central Family,

On Sunday we hosted our undergraduate Fall Open House and what an enjoyable, encouraging day it was!

Prospective students and their families packed Kaiser Hall and the Huang Recreation Center, then toured the campus on a beautiful autumn day. Our faculty and staff were seen everywhere answering their questions, fostering connections with our guests, and giving them a first-hand sense of the CCSU spirit.

The support from our faculty and staff will have an incredible positive impact as our perspective students navigate their decision to attend Central. Our student volunteers are also excellent ambassadors for this University and their life stories as students at Central were priceless.

Sunday’s event was a great team effort. The participation from everyone will provide great results as we continue to increase enrollment for our university.

So, I extend to you my deep appreciation for being part of that team and making Open House a huge success! Thank you.

Sincerely,

Dear Central Family,

Can you believe it's already November? That means it's time to kick off the season of giving with our annual CCSU Holiday Drive!

From November 10 to December 10, the President's Office is partnering with the CCSU Police Department and the CCSU Alumni Association to collect donations of new toys, new winter clothing, personal care items, and non-perishable food on behalf of Maria's Place and New Britain Youth & Family Services. Students in the Educational Opportunity Program have kindly volunteered to provide extra support this year.

We're making it easier than ever to participate in the Holiday Drive, with six donation drop-off locations on campus. Bring your donation at any of the locations listed below, and we'll take care of the rest.

- CCSU Police Department Lobby, 1500 East St., New Britain (open 24/7)
- Ammon College of Liberal Arts & Social Sciences Dean's Office, Willard-DiLoreto Hall, Room D303
- School of Business Dean's Office, Vance Academic Center, Room 216
- School of Engineering, Science, & Technology Dean's Office, Applied Innovation Hub, Room 203
- School of Education & Professional Studies Dean's Office, Barnard Hall, Room 327
- Department of Athletics, Kaiser Hall, Room 112

Together we can show our communities what holiday hope looks like. Let's give it our all to make this year's CCSU Holiday Drive the best yet!

Sincerely,

Zulma R. Toro
President

Dear Central family,

On Sunday, Trans Awareness Week will culminate with a day of remembrance for those whose lives were lost as a result of anti-transgender violence.

To commemorate the significance of the day, the CCSU Pride Club will host a candlelight vigil at the Student Center Circle beginning at 9:30 p.m. The ceremony is always quite moving, and everyone is welcome to attend.

The events of this past week, especially the anger, frustration, and other reactions triggered by the showing of a controversial anti-transgender film on campus, calls attention to the urgency of our efforts to improve the campus culture. We must gain a better understanding of why bullying and violence against the LGBTQ community are so prevalent throughout the world, and what actions are needed on our campus to provide essential support. As an institution of higher education, we also have a responsibility to lead by example and cultivate respect and appreciation for individuals whose views do not align with our own.

On Sunday, as we honor victims of ignorance and hate, let us also draw hope from this University’s commitment to ensuring our campus is a safe, inclusive place for everyone.

Sincerely,

Dear Central Family,

I hope you will join Faculty Senate President Fred Latour and me for an open forum on Thursday, December 1st from 1 to 2:15 p.m. in the Constitution Room. The end of the Fall 2022 semester is quickly approaching, and I’d like to update you on our plans for the spring semester. We will also solicit questions from those of you attending the forum, as well as those watching via the live stream.

I look forward to our meeting and a productive discussion.

Sincerely,

Dear Central Family,

As we approach the end of the fall semester and the Thanksgiving holiday, we have much to be thankful for. Before we know it, the first day of winter and the December holidays will be upon us.

During that time, many of us will host get-togethers or travel to join family and friends for a meal and (hopefully!) a few days of rest and relaxation. Whatever your holiday traditions are, I encourage you to take time to reflect on your accomplishments this semester, celebrate them, and express your gratitude to those who have supported you along the way. I am very thankful for the talented faculty, staff, and students of CCSU. Your dedication to education inspires me every day, and for that I am grateful.

Please accept my best wishes for a safe, restorative, and peaceful holiday break.

Sincerely,

Zulma R. Toro

Dear Central Family,

As Veterans Day approaches, let us be mindful of the men and women of the United States military. We recognize their achievements; we reflect on their stories of sacrifice; and, most important, we thank them for their service.

At Central, we are deeply committed to helping our student veterans make the most of their education. Just as these students made it their duty to protect and defend the values of this country, we consider it our duty to guide them on their academic journey to graduation. We are very proud of them, not only for their service to our country, but also for their leadership on campus and for the example they set for all students.

To the veterans of the Central Family, I thank you for doing your part to safeguard our democracy and the freedom it offers to the citizens of the United States of America.

We will hold a formal Veterans Day observance ceremony on Friday, November 11 at 3:00 p.m. in Alumni Hall. I encourage you all to join us and offer your own words of support and gratitude to our veterans.

Sincerely,

Zulma R. Toro

Dear Central family,

Another Fall semester is in the books. Thank you all for making it memorable and successful! Have a wonderful winter break!

Before we begin our own festivities, Blanco and I would like to share a special holiday message with you!

Dear Central family,

Holiday festivities are in full swing, and we were thrilled to add our own special day of celebration on Saturday with our winter commencement ceremony.

There is something very special about on-campus commencement ceremonies, and it was wonderful to be back in Welte Auditorium to honor our newest alumni.

We had an excellent turnout of faculty, staff, and guests, which made the day even more special for our students. Your presence at graduation beautifully demonstrates to students our investment in their success, and I thank you for taking the time to join the festivities during this busy time of year.

I also must thank the members of the Commencement Committee, staff workers, and volunteers, whose work begins months before the big day, along with the faculty and staff who work behind the scenes to ensure a smooth ceremony.

Commencement is truly a team effort, which perhaps makes it even more special when all is said and done. We share in our students’ excitement, and we can reflect together on a job well done.

So, I extend to you my deep appreciation for being part of that team and making our December 2022 Commencement so meaningful and successful! Thank you!

Sincerely,

Zulma R. Toro

Dear Central Family,

On the day after what would have been his 94th birthday, today we remember and celebrate the life and legacy of the great Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. More than a civil rights activist, Dr. King envisioned a world without war and where poverty could be eliminated. Before his assassination nearly 55 years ago, he saw a world where nonviolent civil disobedience could change hearts and minds, and eventually the laws under which we are governed.

We honor and remember Dr. King, his methods, and his compassion now more than ever in Connecticut, the United States, and the world. We celebrate the transformational figure whose activism led to the passage of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, Voting Rights Act of 1965, and Fair Housing Act of 1968.

On Friday the University will once again pay tribute to the legacy of Dr. King at our annual MLK Day Breakfast & Day of Service. We will hear from our honored guest, national diversity educator, writer, leader, and owner/CEO of Coopwood Diversity Leadership & Educational University, Dr. Ken “Coop” Coopwood, Sr. We are also excited that the day’s activities provide our students, faculty and staff the opportunity to be of service to the campus and New Britain community.

If you are unable to attend the breakfast, I hope you will find your own way to give back to the campus community and community at large.

Remember, students move in tomorrow and classes start January 18th.

Stay safe and enjoy your day.

Sincerely,

Zulma R. Toro

Dear Central Family,

I am pleased to announce that the Presidential Fellows Program (PFP) will return for the 2023-2024 academic year.

As you might recall, the PFP provides professional development opportunities to outstanding academic faculty with the goal of establishing a cadre of leaders prepared to meet the challenges of effective management. Fellows receive guidance in strategic planning, budgeting, and broader issues in higher education. More information can be found here: https://www.ccsu.edu/presidentialFellowsProgram/index.html.

The candidates who are chosen for the program will attend a series of professional development workshops, shadow senior leaders to witness first-hand how units are led and managed and will attend a variety of leadership meetings. In addition, Fellows will directly contribute to CCSU by completing special projects and assuming leadership roles on critical campus strategic initiatives and projects that are designed in conjunction with Fellows’ individual interests and long-term career aspirations. They may also be invited to share their insights on a broad range of issues with the president and senior leadership. Alumni of the PFP may apply in subsequent years for the Senior Presidential Fellow Program.

As part of the application process, candidates must be nominated by an Executive Committee member, the Faculty Senate president, or a dean. Nominations must be submitted to Dr. Beth Merenstein, the Interim Associate Vice President for Community Engagement and Experiential Learning, by March 20th, 2023. You can direct any questions to here at merensteinb@ccsu.edu or at 860-832-3174. A Screening Committee of Executive Committee members and the Faculty Senate President will review the nominations, and I will interview the finalists.

Investing in our faculty’s leadership development is a worthwhile, necessary endeavor. By providing opportunities such as this fellowship, we will strengthen the University’s position in meeting current and future challenges.

Sincerely,

Zulma R. Toro

Dear Central family,

I am pleased to announce that Jodi Latina has accepted our offer to become the Associate Vice President for Communications and Media. Her first official day will be Friday, February 24th.

We are excited to have Jodi, who is a long-time and well-respected journalist, join our Executive Team at CCSU. Her experience will be a tremendous asset to our faculty, staff, and students, and her knowledge of Connecticut and the city of New Britain will help us continue to tell our story.

Latina spent the last three years at WTNH covering stories coming out of the state legislature and major elections. She returned to television journalism after serving as the Chief of Staff for the Mayor of New Britain, CCSU alum Erin Stewart, for four years. She was also the press secretary for the State of Connecticut Legislative branch for five years.

Latina spent nine years at WTNH previously as an anchor/reporter and had stops at News 12, WVII (Bangor, ME) and WFSB, Channel 3.

My thanks to the search committee and its chair, Carmen Veloria, Associate Vice President of Academic Affairs, for conducting a successful, expeditious search.

Please join me in welcoming Associate Vice President Latina to the Central family!

Sincerely,

Dear Central Family,

University Police and the Office of Equity and Inclusion are investigating an incident that occurred in the Student Center Tranquility Room sometime in the evening on Tuesday, January 31, 2023.

Our commitment to fostering an inclusive and safe environment on campus for all remains steadfast. Inherent to the core values of CCSU, we are committed to embracing and strengthening diversity and ensuring an equitable learning environment where every individual is valued. Bigotry, incivility, and any form of harassment will not be tolerated. I assure you that university officials will investigate all complaints and take the appropriate action and/or discipline.

If you have any information about this incident, I strongly encourage you to contact campus police. You may also reach out to Dr. Kellie Byrd Danso, Vice President for Student Affairs, or Dr. Craig J. Wright, Vice President for Equity and Inclusion.

Dear Central Family,

In September of 2022 we informed the campus community that a CCSU student had been accused of sexual assault. Because we take all such concerns seriously, we retained an outside law firm to assist us in evaluating the matter, and to make an independent determination as to whether further action was appropriate.

As part of that process, CCSU encouraged any person who may have been victimized to come forward, whether in person, or through a trusted advisor as this is an extremely sensitive matter. To date, no formal complaint has been made to CCSU.

While the University has and will continue to address all complaints of sexual misconduct under Title IX and its other sexual misconduct policies, under the applicable laws, CCSU is limited in its response when an alleged victim(s) chooses not to participate in the process. When this occurs, we respect the student’s (or students’) decision. We acknowledge that when an alleged victim(s) chooses not to participate in the process, we cannot meet our obligation under the law to provide the respondent an opportunity to respond to the allegations made against them.

At this point, I can inform you that the independent assessment recently concluded and based on the review as well as federal and state legal requirements, there is insufficient information about the allegations for CCSU to take further action. The Family Education Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) and other legal obligations limit the University’s ability to share further information about this matter with its community members.

We understand that this may be frustrating, but CCSU is committed to complying with all applicable laws, and to ensuring student privacy.

We would like to reiterate that campus safety is one of our top priorities, and we remain committed to proactively supporting a campus free of sexual misconduct. Please also know that we make every effort to provide alleged victims and respondents with supportive services whether a complaint has been filed or not. Please, reach out to the Office of Equity and Inclusion, at 860-832-0178 or Public Safety 860-832-2375 should you need them.

Working together we are making CCSU a welcoming and safe campus for all.

Dear Central Family,

This past weekend, Accepted Students Day was awesome! Despite the rain, more than 600-guests enjoyed a day of excitement on our campus.

It was wonderful to see many families from all around New England take the time to visit Central Connecticut State University.

Our smiling faculty, staff, students, and administration did an excellent job of ushering families from the time they entered the Welte Auditorium to their exit at the end of the day. Your participation in this important day is greatly appreciated.

I am encouraged by the positive numbers of visitors we had and look forward to increasing the reach of our Central Family.

Dear Central Family,

It is with great pleasure I announce, Michael Shippam will be starting as the new Interim Vice President of Institutional Advancement.

Michael brings extraordinary skills and experience to the field of Advancement. He has 40 years of fundraising experience. Some of his experience with campaigns includes the $250 Million inaugural Campaign for University of Buffalo where he served as Senior Director. He is a frequent presenter at national conferences that support higher education.

Following that experience, Michael spent 12 years in Field Management and Major Gifts with the Arthritis Foundation, the Juvenile Diabetes Research Foundation, and the National Kidney Foundation.

Most recently Michael served as the Associate Vice President for Major Gifts and Campaigns at Georgia Southern University.

I would like to extend a warm Blue Devil Welcome to Michael Shippam, our new Interim Vice President of Institutional Advancement.

Sincerely,
Zulma R. Toro
President
Dear Central Faculty, Staff and Administration,

I had the pleasure of testifying this past Friday evening before the Legislature’s Finance Revenue and Bonding Committee. Central’s presentation on a request for a new Science Building and infrastructure programs was well received. I am including my testimony here.

The proposed legislation S.B. No. 1246 (RAISED) AN ACT AUTHORIZING THE CONTINUATION OF CSCU 2020, ADJUSTING CERTAIN POWERS OF THE BOARD OF REGENTS FOR HIGHER EDUCATION, ADJUSTING CERTAIN STATE CONTRACTINGRELATED THRESHOLDS AND REPEALING AND REDUCING CERTAIN BOND AUTHORIZATIONS can be found here.

I will keep you informed as the General Assembly debates these capital bonding requests.

Dear Central family,

The month of May is perhaps the best time of the year to be on our campus. Whether you are a candidate for graduation; a first-year student ready for your second year; or simply relieved that finals are over, it’s time to celebrate!

Commencement, of course, is one of our biggest events on campus. As you know, we will have two ceremonies on Saturday, May 13 — one at 9 a.m. and the second at 2:30 p.m. The morning ceremony will honor graduates in the School of Education & Professional Studies and the School of Engineering, Science, and Technology. In the afternoon, students in the Carol A. Ammon College of Liberal Arts & Social Sciences and School of Business will be honored.

Once again, two exceptional alumni have agreed to serve as commencement speakers.

Dr. Jannette Carey ’77 will speak at the 9 a.m. ceremony. A prominent researcher in the field of cellular biology, she was appointed in 1989 to the faculty of Princeton University where she is a tenured associate professor of Chemistry and Molecular Biology. Since then, she has taken on numerous leadership roles to increase diversity in STEM fields; promote access to undergraduate research opportunities; and to foster innovation through a program involving entrepreneurial applications of laboratory research.

Bill Berloni ’89, a native of CCSU’s hometown of New Britain, will address students during the afternoon ceremony. Mr. Berloni has trained rescue animals for live performances, film, and television for more than 40 years through his company, Berloni Theatrical Animals. He is widely recognized as an expert in animal behavior and for his dedication to rescue work. He holds a BFA in Theatre and is a published author; actor; and the recipient of a 2011 Tony Honor for Excellence in Theater, the first ever given to an animal trainer.

I am so grateful we have such an inspiring alumni community who are willing to return to campus and give back in some way.

Of course, we would not be able to stage our commencement ceremonies without the support of the Commencement Committee and the many faculty and staff who serve as marshals, guides, and in other support roles. Our new tradition of hosting an on-campus, outdoor ceremony is a massive undertaking, but the campus community has stepped up once again to make sure the event is very special. Now all we can do is hope for good weather! (Just in case, the rain date for commencement is May 14.)

Commencement is such a special time on any university campus. It is time when all of us should take a few moments to look back on our successes, reflect on our personal and academic growth, and embrace the future.

Sincerely,

Dear Central Family,

I am very proud of this university community for the amazing Commencement event everyone put on over the weekend. There is something very special about on-campus ceremonies, and I’m thrilled we staged another beautiful event for our newest 2,400 alumni. We had a packed stadium of more than 10,000 guests. Our ceremonies have been streamed to more than 5 thousand viewers since Saturday. And the local press coverage continues to roll in for all to see and read.

The turnout of faculty, staff, and volunteers was tremendous. This made the day even more special for our students. I thank everyone who joined us on Saturday. I thank the members of the Commencement Committee, whose work begins months before the big day, as well as faculty and staff who worked tirelessly behind the scenes.

Commencement is truly a team effort, and for that you have my deepest appreciation. We look forward to seeing you Friday for a well-deserved celebration at 11:30 am in the Davidson Courtyard.

Thank you!

Dear Central Family,

I am pleased to announce that Dr. Kristine Larsen has been selected for one of our most prestigious honors – the designation of Connecticut State University Professor.

Dr. Larsen, a professor of Geological Sciences, joins an illustrious group of professors in the CSCU system who hold the title, including two of her fellow Central Connecticut State University (CCSU) faculty members, (Carol Austad and Felton Best). She will retain the title for the duration of her service to the university.

Dr. Larsen acquired her Bachelor of Arts in Physics from CCSU in 1985. She earned her master’s degree in Physics from the University of Connecticut in 1987 and went on to complete doctoral studies in Physics at UConn.

A CCSU faculty member since 1989, Dr. Larsen has amassed an extraordinary record of scholarship and grant-funded research in Astronomy, Physics, and Earth Sciences. During her tenure, Dr. Larsen also helped to establish the Center for Teaching and Innovation/Center for Teaching and Faculty Development. Currently she serves as director of the Honors Program.

For her efforts, Dr. Larsen has garnered many prestigious awards over the years. Most recently Dr. Larsen was placed on the May 2022 CCSU Excellence in Teaching Honor Roll and received the 2021 G.R. Wright Service Award from the Astronomical League.

Outside of CCSU, Dr. Larsen is a member of several academic societies, including the American Association of Variable Star Observers, American Astronomical Society, and the Astronomical League among others. She is active in the AAUP CCSU chapter and held leadership positions and an array of committee memberships over the years. She is the author of eight books, more than 60 peer-reviewed articles, and more than 50 book chapters.

Please join me in congratulating Dr. Larsen. Her body of work highlights the excellence of the education that Central offers to our students.

Sincerely,

Dear Central Family,

June 19, we will commemorate Juneteenth National Independence Day, which marks the end of slavery in the United States. Also known as Freedom Day, Jubilee Day, Liberation Day, and Emancipation Day, Juneteenth has been recognized and celebrated throughout the United States since June 19, 1865 — the day when the Union Army arrived in Galveston, Texas, to enforce the Emancipation Proclamation and free the last enslaved African Americans.

The Connecticut General Assembly has established Juneteenth as a legal state holiday. Governor Ned Lamont signed the bill into law. This year, Central will be closed to recognize the day formally. There will be no classes, administrative offices closed, employees designated as Level 1 may be required to work.

As we celebrate this important milestone in U.S. history, I hope you will take some time to reflect on the nation-changing impact of Juneteenth. It is not only a celebration of freedom, but also one of opportunity, equity, and access. Institutions of higher education have a responsibility to cultivate such access, and I am so proud of the Central family’s ongoing efforts to create a safe, welcoming, and respectful environment for all.

Sincerely,

Dear Central Family,

It is my pleasure to welcome our new Chief of Police, Sean Grant. Chief Grant comes to us from east of the river and the town of Manchester, where he served as Captain on the Manchester Police Department. He is a career law enforcement officer who began his career by serving four years in the Connecticut National Guard.

Chief Grant graduated from the University of Connecticut in 1996 with a Bachelor of Arts in Political Science and Sociology. Through his time in law enforcement, he has overseen a regional narcotics taskforce, lead investigations of high magnitude including those of a sensitive nature such as computer crimes, child investigations and sex crimes.

A graduate of the FBI National Academy, Grant also holds more than a dozen certifications including Crisis Intervention, and Diffusion Strategies. He is also Police Officer Standards and Training (POST) certified through the Commission on Accreditation for Law Enforcement Agencies (CALEA), which has long been considered the gold standard in the field. CALEA accreditation ensures best practice policies and procedures are in place and validates that the agency is adhering to them. Chief Grant has also received the Police Department’s Medals of Valor twice for Active Shooter incidents.

I want to also thank all the members of the search committee for their work and dedication to the search process that resulted in this positive outcome. This hire is instrumental to our public safety for the campus. As you are aware, Interim Chief of Police and Director of Public Safety Chris Cervoni is officially retiring. We thank him for all his years of service to the University. His duties and police powers will be transferred to Chief Grant in accordance with statutes. A public swearing in ceremony will take place at the end of the summer.

Please join me in congratulating the newest member of our Central Blue Devil Family.

Sincerely,

Zulma Toro

Dear Central Family,

It is my pleasure to welcome our new Chief Human Resources Officer to Central Connecticut State University. Christopher Wethje comes to us with vast experience in this field. He currently works for one of the largest public-school systems in Connecticut and has previous experience in private labor and employment law.

As the Human Resources Director for East Hartford Public Schools for nearly twenty years, Mr. Wethje oversees all human resources functions to support more than 1,300 employees. As a labor attorney Wethje has experience counseling employers on human resource functions, labor relations, grievance processing, arbitration, and negotiation of collective bargaining agreements. He currently oversees eight union contracts in the public school district.

As a graduate of UCONN School of Law and Providence College, Christopher is ready to hit the ground running. He is also certified by the State Department of Education in School Business Administration.

I want to thank the members of the search committee for their work and dedication to the search process that resulted in this instrumental hire. As you are aware, Chief Human Resource Officer Anna Suski-Lenczewski is officially retiring. We thank her for her decades of service to Central and contributing to the overall mission of the University.

I hope you will join me in embracing the newest member of our Blue Devil family to campus.

Sincerely,

Zulma Toro
President
Good Morning,

Within the next few weeks, I will be sending out an email to all faculty and staff to inform them of the 7 required trainings:

- Ethics 101 CT Office of State Ethics e-Learning course that takes 30 minutes
- FERPA which is a Board of Regents mandate and takes 20 minutes
- Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act (GLBA) which is a Board of Regents mandate and takes 15 minutes
- Sexual Harassment Prevention (Harassment Prevention) which is a CHRO standard and takes 2 hours
- Title IX / Cleary Act, & VAWA FOR Faculty and Staff which is a Board of Regents mandate and takes 20 minutes
- Workplace Violence Prevention which is a state mandate and takes 20 minutes
- Diversity in the Workplace – State mandate 2 hour virtual workshop and Understanding and Preventing Microaggressions 1 hour online training- to be completed after you complete the virtual workshop.

All of the trainings will be available via NEOLEARN with the exception of the Diversity in the Workplace training. The first 2 hours of the 3 hours required, is taught via Teams workshop from the EEO Center of Excellence. Once participants completed the 2 hour workshop, there is a 1 hour module available through NEOLEARN.

In an effort to make this 2 hour workshop accessible and to reach a stronger compliance yield, I have made arrangements for the representative from EEO to come to CCSU on August 16 from 10-12pm to conduct this workshop in-person. This will allow departments to require the staff members that are working for the summer to attend. If they can’t attend this workshop, they will have to register for a session online and there are only a few offered over the semester. Our goal should be to push this in-person training!

Please send/share this link with the staff that you are able to require to attend the training: Click Here to Register for the CCSU In-Person Training

Thank you for your partnership and support. If you have any questions, please let me know.

Dear Colleagues,

CCSU is committed to providing a safe and nondiscriminatory employment and educational environment that complies with state affirmative action, discrimination, and harassment policies. Before the new semester gets even busier, please set aside some time to schedule and complete the seven mandatory compliance training sessions for state employees.

The training modules are available online via NEOED Learn. The required session topics are Ethics 101; FERPA; Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act; Sexual Harassment Prevention; Title IX/Cleary Act and the Violence Against Women Act; Workplace Violence Prevention; and CSCU/CSCC Equal Employment Opportunity Center of Excellence Diversity Training. Members of the campus community who work in Residence Life, Athletics, and the CCSU Police and various student leaders will be required to participate in additional training.

Once you complete each program, you will receive a certification. Some of these workshops are required only once during your tenure as a state employee. If you have proof of certification from a previous training, please email me the information and we will make a note of it for this year’s compliance.

Please visit the Office of Equity & Inclusion’s new Employee Training web page at https://www.ccsu.edu/diversity/employeeTraining for more information about the trainings and links to register for your first session. We have included instructions on how to get started and other important details. We ask that you please complete all training by Sept. 30.

We understand that these requirements will take several hours of your time, and we appreciate your dedication to a safe and inclusive campus community. If you have any questions about these trainings, please don’t hesitate to contact our office at (860) 832-1652.

Sincerely,

Jill Bassett-Cameron, Ed.D., Senior Equity & Inclusion Officer/Title IX Coordinator

Dear colleagues,

This is a reminder email that our mandatory compliance training sessions for state employees are due by Sept. 30. The training modules are available online via NEOED Learn. Please visit the Office of Equity & Inclusion’s Employee Training web page at https://www.ccsu.edu/diversity/employeeTraining for more information about the trainings, including how often the trainings are needed for compliance.

Updates regarding the dashboards: We are happy to share that prior certifications have been uploaded to qualify for compliance. We recognize that there are two FERPA trainings available and we ask that you complete one of the two, unless you are faculty and staff and we ask that you complete both.

Updates regarding Diversity Training offered by EEO: We are excited to share that the EEO will be offering another Diversity Training session on Nov. 2, from 1 to 3 p.m. in Memorial Hall. To register for this in-person training go to https://bit.ly/CCSUdiversitytraining or visit the OEI Mandatory Employee Training 2022-'23 web page and follow the link for Diversity Training. This training will fulfill two of the three hours required. While participants have expressed that the in-person training was best, there are virtual options provided by EEO. Details for both the in-person or virtual sessions are on the OEI website.

We understand that these requirements will take several hours of your time, and we appreciate your dedication to a safe and inclusive campus community. If you have any questions about these trainings, please don’t hesitate to contact our office at (860) 832-1652.

Dear Management/Confidential Employees:

Two of our system’s goals for this current academic year are (1) to enhance DEI strategy, tactics, policies, approaches, and resources across CSCU for academic affairs, student affairs, enrollment management and finance, and (2) to establish and strengthen greater “systemness” (which includes DEI, and HR Training).

In accordance with these goals and our affirmative action plan, we have developed a system-wide DEI training for all CSCU managers and confidential employees. It is our expectation that all manager/confidential employees will complete this training by the end of the Spring 2023 semester.

As managerial/confidential employees, we play a vital role in ensuring everyone within our system is valued and affirmed. This training is one of many steps we are taking throughout CSCU to create institutions that embrace our rich diversity and eliminate barriers.

The below training sessions will utilize our collective expertise to strategize necessary steps and actions that will advance our workforce and support our efforts to serve our students.

1. January 6, 2023 - Eastern Connecticut State University training
2. January 27, 2023 - Naugatuck Valley Community College training
3. February 3, 2023 - Middlesex Community College training
4. February 10, 2023 - Manchester Community College training
5. March 3, 2023 - Tunxis Community College training
6. March 24, 2023 - Southern Connecticut State University training
7. April 14, 2023 - Western Connecticut State University training

Sincerely,

Nick D’Agostino
Director of EEO, CSCU

Kimberly H. James, D.M., M.Ed.
Special Assistant to the President, CSCU

Training Program:

Summary: This training will be an opportunity for all Managerial/Confidential to work together in conversations on topics/issues facing out institutions around Diversity, Equity and Inclusion. These interactive sessions will provide a foundational set of skills to better equip leaders throughout our system to have conversations on around, but not limited to, race, equity, systemic oppressions, and other topics.

Goals: Enhance DEI strategy, tactics, policies, approaches, and resources across CSCU for academic affairs, student affairs, enrollment management, and finance. Establish and strengthen greater “systemness” (which includes DEI, and HR Training).

Central Connecticut State University is committed to a policy of nondiscrimination in education and employment. Harassment, sexual harassment, discrimination, victimization, violence and other forms of offensive and/or inappropriate behavior constitute unwelcome conduct which may create a hostile work environment.

Any person who believes they have been subject to or a witness to any conduct by a CCSU employee or contracted vendor that they believe constitutes a hostile work environment is encouraged to contact the Office of Equity and Inclusion, and complete the on-line Discrimination Form. Formal complaints will be reviewed by OEI and referred to the CCSU Police Department or CCSU Human Resources, if appropriate.

The Office of Equity and Inclusion will promptly address each complaint and make reasonable efforts to expeditiously affect a resolution. All investigations of such complaints will be managed with appropriate sensitivity and in accordance with the CCSU Procedures and Timetables for Processing of Discrimination and Sexual Harassment Complaints.

Questions regarding complaint procedures may be directed to the Office of Equity and Inclusion or the Chief Human Resources Officer. All complaints shall be logged and tracked by the Office of Equity and Inclusion, and made available to Human Resources and University Counsel.
Dear Central Family,

As we enter the holy month of Ramadan, we recognize the religious practices of our Muslim Community.

Ramadan is a month of fasting for Muslims, religious reflection, and charity.

Participants refrain from all food and drink while the sun is up and break the fasting every night when the sun goes down. This 14 hour fast every day, will last for approximately 30 days.

Ramadan begins Wednesday evening 3/22/23 until Thursday evening 4/20/23. To the observers, may Ramadan bring you prosperity and joy.

To learn more please visit the campus ministry https://www.ccsu.edu/campusministry/islam.html

Happy Ramadan!
Dear Colleagues:

As of today (4/6/23) 916 employees (faculty & staff) have completed the mandatory NEOGov training, 480 have not started and 62 are in progress.

I am asking everyone who has not started or in progress to complete the Title IX training first and immediately. Please keep in mind these compliance trainings are mandatory.

To date our compliance rate is 63%, CCSU must be 100% in compliance. Please complete the Title IX portion of the NEOGov training upon receipt of this email.

Your cooperation is anticipated.

Regards,

Craig

March 9, 2023

Dear Colleagues,

Throughout the Fall ’22 semester my office sent multiple notifications to the university community, urging all faculty and staff to complete the mandatory compliance training. The trainings help to advance CCSU’s commitment to providing a safe and nondiscriminatory educational and employment environment that complies with federal and state affirmative action, discrimination, and harassment policies. In our last NECHE review CCSU was grossly lacking in compliance. It is imperative that CCSU is 100% compliant with our training. Therefore, I am asking everyone who has not completed all the modules in NEOED (NEOGov) to complete the trainings by Friday, March 3, 2023.

The training modules are available online via NEOED Learn. The required session topics are Ethics 101; FERPA; Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act; Sexual Harassment Prevention; Title IX/Cleary Act and the Violence Against Women Act; Workplace Violence Prevention; and CSCU/CSCC Equal Employment Opportunity Center of Excellence Diversity Training.
If you are having any challenges with your NEOGov account, please email the Senior Equity & Inclusion Officer/Title IX Coordinator, Dr. Jill Bassett Cameron so we may resolve the issue.

Please visit the Office of Equity & Inclusion’s new Employee Training web page at https://www.ccsu.edu/diversity/employeeTraining for more information about the trainings. We ask that you please complete the online modules by March 3, 2023.

I understand that these requirements will take several hours of your time, and we appreciate your dedication to a safe and inclusive campus community, and a successful NECHE evaluation.

Sincerely,

Craig J. Wright

Dear Colleagues:

The Office of Equity and Inclusion would like to thank the 84% of employees that have completed the required Title IX, Clery and VAWA NeoGOV module. In a continued effort to obtaining 100% compliance, the Senior Equity & Inclusion Officer/Title IX Coordinator, Dr. Jill Bassett-Cameron will be hosting sessions on Wednesday, June 7 from 10am-12pm at Vance Hall room 006. If you have NOT completed this training, please do one of the following:

1. Attend one of the 30 minute sessions on June 7. Registration is not needed as computers are available in the room. The sessions will be offered on a rotation for every 30 minutes and Jill will be able to provide real time support to ensure your successful completion.

or

2. If you are self-directed and still need to complete your Title IX requirement, please do so online via NEOED Learn.

Please visit the OEI’s Employee Training web page at https://www.ccsu.edu/diversity/employeeTraining for more information about the trainings.

We understand that these requirements are time consuming but compliance demonstrates our dedication to a safe and inclusive campus community, and a successful NECHE evaluation.

If you have any questions, please reach out to OEI.
Dear CCSU Faculty and Staff,

I would like to thank you for your continued partnership with ensuring that our campus community is safe, committed to inclusion and compliant with Title IX. It is my hope that this email and future communications from the Office of Equity and Inclusion (OEI) will aid you in your role and responsibilities as a mandated reporter and employee of CCSU.

Who is a mandated reporter?
Most of you are considered “mandated reporters.” The university employees exempted from this are University clergy, and our Counseling and Student Wellness Center staff.

What are the responsibilities of a mandated reporter?
You are required to report information about known or suspected prohibited conduct, whether you as an employee received that information by means of a complaint, report, personal observation, or otherwise, including information learned from third parties.

Prohibited conduct includes allegations of gender-based discrimination involving, sexual misconduct, sexual harassment, dating violence, domestic violence, stalking, or retaliation, must be reported the Title IX Coordinator.

For your convenience, here is our reporting form which will route complaints the Title IX Coordinator for immediate follow up.

The Title IX Coordinator is responsible for ensuring that all parties have the supportive measures they need (i.e., counseling, academic, or work/ housing accommodations).

Attached you will find the most updated On and Off Campus Resources Guide as well as the 2022-2023 Title IX Reporting Procedures guide for employees. For additional information regarding policies and procedures, please visit https://www.ccsu.edu/OEI/. If you would like additional information regarding Title IX or discrimination, please contact Dr. Jill Bassett-Cameron, Senior OEI Officer & Title IX Coordinator directly. You may call Dr. Bassett-Cameron at 860-832-1653. The new office location for the Title IX Coordinator and Lindsey Hammell, OEI Case Manager is Willard Di Loreto room W105. Please note that the Office of Victim Advocacy (OVA) is also in Willard Di Loreto room W305. Mr. Jamaal Wagner is CCSU’s Sexual Assault & Violence Prevention Specialist.

If you are interested in our office presenting to your staff and/or class, please contact me. We are eager to educate as many Blue Devils as possible.

I appreciate your support as we aim to cultivate a campus environment that is safe and welcoming for all.

Sincerely,

Good Afternoon All,

It is my hope that you have received an appointment letter by the President regarding your role on either SART or Title IX Hearing Board. As the chair for these bodies, I would like to thank you for your support to CCSU.

To kick off the semester, Dr. Craig Wright, Vice President of OEI would like to invite all members of SART, the T9 Hearing Board, and the OEI staff to a breakfast on November 3, 2022 at 8am in the Constitution Room. I will be sending an outlook invite as well.

After the breakfast, SART will hold our require fall meeting from 9am-10am. I would like to thank our community partners who can join SART this year.

For members of the hearing board, I will be sending you your training homework and date for when we will be meeting.

Again, I would like to thank you all for your support on these important groups. Lastly, if things have changed and you are no longer able to serve in your role, please let me know.

Best,
Jill

Dear friends,

Welcome to the new academic year! Following an unprecedented number of retirements in recent months, many of the faces on campus are changing, but our commitment to providing every CCSU student an accessible, affordable, and excellent education will forever remain the same!

As we usually do, we are kicking off the 2022-2023 Annual Fund Campaign with the Faculty & Staff Appeal. We are hoping to replace the philanthropic dollars our recently retired colleagues made through payroll deduction and periodic gifts. You are already one of the University’s greatest resources and most passionate supporters. We’re asking you to extend that support by making a gift to the Annual Fund (or whatever program or scholarship you wish to support) through payroll deduction. Just a few dollars a paycheck will add up to a significant gift each year.

The Annual Fund supports one-time and recurring expenses that cannot be covered by tuition dollars or state funds. The Annual Fund allows the university to be creative, innovative, and nimble. It’s what we rely on to meet unanticipated needs and gives us the flexibility needed to face and overcome challenges. See for yourself what the Annual Fund supports by watching our Annual Fund Campaign kickoff video.

Payroll deduction is an easy way to make your contribution to the Annual Fund – or any program, project, or scholarship that you are passionate about. You decide the amount to give each pay-period and what CCSU Foundation fund(s) your dollars support.
Dear Faculty:

The AAUP Minority Recruitment and Retention Committee (MCCR), in partnership with the Office of Diversity and Equity, is proud to announce the 2022/2023 AAUP-MRRC Grants program (see attachment). The AAUP-MRRC grants support eligible faculty in one or more of the following four areas: professional development in teaching or other load credit activity; creative activity appropriate to their fields; productive services; and/or professional activity.

Applications for MRCC funds will be accepted from all non-tenured faculty members who are members of minority groups as designated in the University’s affirmative action plan. The criteria for evaluating AAU-MRRC grants proposals are the quality and completeness of the proposal, and the potential of the proposed activities to assist the applicant in strengthening their credentials for retention purposes.

To apply, please use the word document (attached) and take into consideration the list of requirements and restrictions. The AAUP Minority Recruitment & Retention Committee, working closely with the Office of Diversity and Equity, is available to assist the university in achieving its goal of recruiting and retaining faculty members of minority and other protected groups in accordance with the CSU-AAUP Collective Bargaining Agreement Article 3.4.2.

Dear campus community,

Mental Health First Aid training is off to a solid start this semester! The next training session is scheduled for Friday, November 18, from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. at Hilltop Café. Please note that this will be a live training with no virtual component. MHFA limits us to 20 participants per training group, so we will fill slots for this training on a first-come, first-served basis.

Mental Health First Aid is a national training initiative that teaches professionals outside of the mental health field how to identify, understand, and respond to signs of mental illness and substance use disorders. The training provides skills needed for faculty and staff to reach out and provide initial help and support to students who may be experiencing emotional, cognitive, or interpersonal distress, as well as substance use problems. This training makes it more comfortable to start conversations about mental health and substance use problems by improving understanding and providing action steps to assist students in getting the help they need.

Please forward this email to others in your Department/Division/School. I am looking forward to participation across departments and divisions within the University.

To register for the November 18 training session, please go to https://forms.office.com/r/zpLqvRgt3u/.

Thank you for considering participation in this very important initiative!

The CSCU Accessibility Council is excited to announce the winners of 2022 Betsey Doane Award – a program designed to recognize faculty and staff who mindfully incorporate digital accessibility and innovation to teaching and learning best practices.

This “Accessibility Innovators Program” is named after current council member and long-standing educator, Betsey Doane. Teaching Mathematics for Housatonic Community College since 1970, Betsey has been an inspirational advocate for accessibility and an educational innovator for blind and visually impaired students for over 50 years.

An open call for nominees was launched systemwide on March 4th. When the call closed on June 1, 2022, over 20 group and individual nominations had been received. The CSCU Accessibility Council’s review committee evaluated the nominations based on the following criteria: defined need, innovative solution, effectiveness and impact, feasibility to scale or replicate, and evidence of creativity.

After a lengthy review process, the review team identified 10 group and individual nominations whose work embodied the spirit of Betsey Doane. Please join us in congratulating:

- Jarrod Borek, CT State Community College
- Shannon Duggan, Naugatuck Valley Community College
- Leah Glaser, Central Connecticut State University
- Sandra Flores-Gonzales, Eastern Connecticut State University
- Katherine Hermes, Central Connecticut State University
- Patrick Keller, Quinebaug Valley Community College
- Aura Lippincott, Western Connecticut State University
- Elisabeth Morel, Western Connecticut State University
- Amy Lenoce Royal, Naugatuck Valley Community College
- Nicolas Simon, Eastern Connecticut State University
- Jakob Spjut, Quinebaug Valley Community College
- Alan Teitleman, Naugatuck Valley Community College
- Lauren Tucker, Southern Connecticut State University

To learn more about each nominee and their work, please visit the Betsey Doane Award webpage.

For those who were nominated but not selected, the Accessibility Council would like to recognize the good work you have done. The nominations on your behalf are a testament to your dedication to accessibility efforts. We hope to see future nominations on your behalf and welcome any questions you may have.

Please contact Kevin Corcoran, Associate Vice President of Digital Learning for Academic & Student Affairs, at kcorcoran@commnet.edu with any questions related to the Council or its recognition program.

Again, the CSCU Accessibility Council would like to congratulate the inaugural Betsey Doane Award winners.

Thank you for your time and attention.
Hi all,

As a member of the Age Friendly University Global Network, CCSU is proud to be partnering with the CT Age Well Collaborative! The Collaborative is a state-wide effort to support communities in fostering aging, dementia, and disability inclusivity. Our CT communities are stronger when we all feel included and valued across the lifespan and the ability spectrum!

The Collaborative is publishing a series of Resource Guides. The first is attached. I hope you will take a few minutes to read more about the work of the Collaborative and think about how you or your students might get involved.

They are also sponsoring a series of workshops - The Age Well Academy - available throughout the next year. Register here: https://ctagewellcollaborative.org/. They are free and open to everyone! I've included the topics and dates below.

- How to Reframe the Aging Narrative: Celebrating Vitality
  Wednesday, February 8, 2023, 11am to 12:30pm | Virtual
- Sharing and Celebration Summit: Honoring Community Excellence
  Wednesday, April 26, 2023, 11am to 1pm | State Capitol
- Understanding Your Community: An Interactive Data Tool
  Wednesday, June 7, 2023, 11am to 12:30pm | Virtual
- Practical Action for Aging, Dementia and Disability Inclusivity: Best Practice Guidelines
  Wednesday, September 13, 2023, 11am to 12:30pm | Virtual
- Honoring Lived Experience and Creating Community Authority
  Wednesday, October 18, 2023, 11am to 12:30 pm | Virtual

Please feel free to reach out to me or to Beth Merenstein in the Center for Community Engagement and Social Research (CCESR) about opportunities to partner with the Collaborative!

Be well,
Andrea

Good morning everyone,

Attached are the announcements for the first Spring 2023 Mentoring Mondays session—All About the John Lewis Institute at CCSU with Robert Wolff and Evelyn Phillips—and the full schedule for the spring semester. These weekly programs are designed to help students, faculty, and staff to understand the resources available at CCSU and to meet the people involved. They take place Mondays from 12:15 to 1:00 in the LALCC (Elihu Burritt Library, Suite 408) or on Teams at https://bit.ly/3GEKfYA. The programs represent the offices and people on campus that the LALCC student assistants would like to know more about. Recordings of previous sessions are available on our YouTube channel: https://www.youtube.com/channel/UCu3scvHnsOjXT94S2AzMTXQ/featured which you can also find through a link on our website.

Please announce to your students and consider joining us! For further information, contact me or LALCC Student Assistant Adiana Disdiel at st_ad1320@ccsu.edu.

Have a good day,

Best,

Mary Ann

Dear Colleagues,

The Distinguished Service Award (DSA) Committee is seeking nominations for this year’s award. Any full-time employee of the University is eligible for consideration, and any member of the campus community may make a nomination. I ask that you take a moment to consider nominating (or re-nominating) a colleague, and that you share information about the nomination process with students. Please note, all aspects of this process should be confidential. Nominees should not know they have been nominated or be placed in the difficult position of having to prepare an “application” for the DSA award following a nomination.

The process for making nominations to the DSA Committee is as follows:

1. Nominations must be received no later than March 24, 2023 and may be submitted via email to Jaclyn Dahn (jdahn@ccsu.edu) in the Office of the Provost and Vice President for Academic Affairs.
2. Nominators assemble a complete dossier about the nominee for consideration. Committee members will be available to provide feedback and answer questions as nominators prepare the dossier.
3. The complete dossier is due to the Office of the Provost and Vice President for Academic Affairs by April 21, 2023.

The attached guidelines provide additional information about the award and the nomination process.

We look forward to receiving your nominations.

Sincerely,

Dr. Kim Kostelis
Interim Provost
Good morning,

The Center for Community Engagement and Social Research would like to thank all of you that participated in this year’s MLK Day of Service activities after the MLK Breakfast on Friday, January 20th! Our Center intends to continue to provide opportunities for our faculty, staff, and students to build upon our relationship with our partners in the Greater New Britain Area through service-learning and community-centered programming. Here is a brief overview of our volunteers’ impact this year:

- In partnership with the United Way, CCSU’s volunteers completed 57 literacy kits to be provided to New Britain students between grades K-3. For more information on the United Way’s work in this area, please visit https://unitedwayinc.org/our-work/youth-success/.

- CCSU’s volunteers crafted 100 feminine hygiene kits, which included an assortment of menstrual hygiene supplies, toothbrushes, toothpaste, deodorant, and bath wipes. 20 of these kits will be provided to Girls Inc in Meriden, while 80 will go to YWCA of New Britain’s House of Teens.

- A group of our volunteers went to the Friendship Center in New Britain, working alongside some of the neighborhood residents supported by the shelter to clean out a crowded storage area and reorganize supplies.
Another group of CCSU volunteers read to and did activities with 6 classrooms at Smalley Elementary in the North Oak Neighborhood of New Britain.

The Center would appreciate if those of you who attended would fill out our MLK Day of Service Volunteer Experience Feedback Survey (click here) to help us in developing even more successful service activities and days of service in the future.

Thank you all again for your commitment to this initiative and we hope to see you next year!

Dear CCSU Family,

February is the month set aside to celebrate the contributions and achievements of African Americans and also to acknowledge the challenges of which Martin Luther King Jr spoke in his "I Have a Dream" speech, many of which still remain today.

The CCSU Center for Africana Studies was founded in 2002 to promote academic and cultural awareness about Africa, African Americans, and people of African descent across the Diaspora. The Center’s unique events highlight innovative scholarship on the past, present, and future of African Diasporan lives and cultures. Through lectures, conferences, and social activities, the Center links CCSU with the Greater New Britain/Hartford community, as well as statewide, nationally, and globally.

The Center is located on the lower level of Marcus White Hall, Room 008. It offers a welcoming and inclusive space for CCSU students, faculty, and staff, including computer workstations, lounge and study areas, and space for club and social activities. Hours are Monday through Thursday, 10 am to 7 pm. Contact africanacenter@ccsu.edu for more information. In addition, please follow the Center on Instagram (Africanacenterccsu).

Throughout the year, the Center hosts both academic and social events, including films, lectures, open mic evenings, and our signature Annual Conference, now in its 29th year. All events are free and open to both campus and community audiences.

Today, the Center for Africana Studies is introducing its new Director, Oluwatoyin Awoderu, MBA.

Oluwatoyin completed her Bachelor of Science degree in Microbiology from Ogun State University, Nigeria in 1990, Master of Science degree in Microbiology from the University of Lagos, Nigeria in 1992 and a Master of Business Administration in International Business in 2006 from Central Connecticut State University. She has worked in the CCSU Center for International Education since 2004 and has been an active member and participant in the Center for Africana Studies throughout her career.

The Center has several events scheduled to celebrate Black History Month – stay tuned and save the dates!

- February 15, 12 noon: Open House, Marcus White 008
- February 23, 9 am: “Start with a Dream” Black-themed College Exploration for local high school students
- February 27, 10 am: Black Inventors Traveling Museum
- March 2, 12 noon: Center for Africana Studies Annual Conference, Constitution Room

Event information will follow via listserv and social media.
The 2022-23 Excellence in Teaching
Honor Roll & Semi-Finalists

The Excellence in Teaching (EIT) Committee wishes to congratulate the following faculty, who, through their diligence, creativity and caring, have made exceptional contributions in the classroom and beyond at Central Connecticut State University. We all owe them a debt of gratitude for their service and for all that they add to our community.

We had 95 nominees this year, and these nominations are given distinction with pride and gratitude. It has been our privilege to discover the many unique and exciting classroom strategies used by these individuals.

In the coming days, the EIT Committee will complete the process of evaluating the Semi-Finalists for the 2022-23 Excellence in Teaching Award. Once the finalists have been chosen, the committee will visit the classrooms of each finalist and then vote on the winners.

As We Continue to Celebrate the 50th Anniversary of Title IX, CCSU Announces its Title IX Trailblazers

In recognizing the 50th anniversary of Title IX, several CCSU groups have planned a celebration marking the impact of women on campus. These groups include the President’s Commission on Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion; the Office of the President; the Department of Athletics; the Office of Equity and Inclusion; Women, Gender, and Sexuality Studies; The Ruth Boyea Women’s Center; and the Committee on the Concerns of Women.

As part of this recognition, the committee has selected 10 Title IX Trailblazers — two women from each of the past five decades with ties to CCSU. These 10 women will be honored on campus on Thursday night, March 2, at halftime during the women’s basketball game in Detrick Gymnasium. A pregame reception will be held for the recipients and their families.

“Title IX changed the trajectory of women in sport and beyond,” CCSU President Zulma R. Toro states. “I am honored to recognize these Title IX Trailblazers who have come from varied backgrounds and across a half-century of CCSU history. Their successes showcase the importance of equality and boundless excellence. I am proud to stand alongside these trailblazers to celebrate them and inspire future generations.”

The honorees have made outstanding contributions to positively impact the lives and well-being of people in their communities in one or more of the follow areas: Social justice, activism, and advocacy; community service and community building; scholarly research, writing, speaking, and teaching; education; business; social services; and government. Each of the women listed below is either an alumna of CCSU; a present or former faculty member; or a present or former staff member of the University. Several of the honorees are former student-athletes for the Blue Devils.

“We are honored to celebrate and thankful to this group of women for their contributions to CCSU over the last five decades,” says CCSU’s Faculty Athletics Representative and Professor of Criminology Kathy Bantley. “As we celebrate 50 years of Title IX, we are excited to gather on March 2 during our women’s basketball game to pay tribute to these 10 women.”

Good morning all,

I am very proud to share that Central Connecticut State University has received the Connecticut Age Well Collaborative’s 2023 Wellspring Award for fostering aging, dementia, and disability inclusivity in Connecticut. Among other factors Central Connecticut State University was selected for the long-term, systemic community impact of its work as an Age-Friendly University.

The Connecticut Age Well Collaborative, a statewide, cross-sector initiative to foster communities where we all thrive as we grow up and grow older, announced the recipients of its first-ever Wellspring Awards today. CCSU was one of only four recipients selected for fostering aging, dementia and disability inclusivity in Connecticut, creating long-term, systemic community impact going beyond the provision of individual services and supports. A full press release of the award is attached.

Thank you to all of you who have recognized the value of our older learners and the benefits of intergenerational connection and who contribute, big or small, to our aims as an age-inclusive campus. Creating space on campus for all of us to feel included as we age is a community effort, and this recognition belongs to all of us. Let us continue to do this great work!

If you’d like to learn more about our Age-Friendly University status and some of the amazing efforts across campus that serve our mission of lifelong learning and engagement, please visit this website: https://www.ccsu.edu/gerontology/afu.html as well as the other headings under the Gerontology banner.

Want to get involved?! Please email me! I would love to collaborate, provide resources, or help connect you with community partners.

Warmly,
Andrea

Connecticut Age Well Collaborative Honors Aging, Dementia and Disability-Inclusive Work with First-Ever Wellspring Awards

The Connecticut Age Well Collaborative, a statewide, cross-sector initiative to foster communities where we all thrive as we grow up and grow older, announced the recipients of its first-ever Wellspring Awards. Four recipients were selected for fostering aging, dementia and disability inclusivity in Connecticut, creating long-term, systemic community impact going beyond the provision of individual services and supports:

- Age-Friendly Glastonbury: A community-wide effort to address the diverse and evolving needs of community members of all ages, especially in relation to infrastructure, outdoor spaces, and other domains of livability.
- Thrive 55+ Active Living Center, Groton: For its work toward adopting a new branding identity and for its inclusion efforts for individuals with dementia or socialization issues.
- Dementia-Friendly Southington: A comprehensive effort to support people experiencing cognitive change, especially through training of municipal staff and community partners.
- Central Connecticut State University: The first Connecticut university to join the Age-Friendly University Global Network, promoting lifelong learning, intergenerational connection and disrupting ageism.

“As we all live longer and healthier lives, it’s more important than ever before to celebrate policies, projects and initiatives that plan intentionally with an aging, dementia and disability lens,” said June Renzulli, Chair of the Connecticut Age Well Collaborative’s Steering Committee and a retired nonprofit and philanthropy leader. “We are thrilled to share the inspiring work of our Wellspring Award recipients.”

Recipients will be recognized at the State Capitol on Wednesday, April 26 from 11 AM to 1 PM at a Sharing and Celebration Summit to Honor Community Excellence, hosted by the Connecticut Age Well Collaborative and the Commission on Women, Children, Seniors, Equity & Opportunity. At the event, the Connecticut Age Well Collaborative will release its third municipal resource guide, highlighting the work of the 2023 Wellspring Award recipients as case studies. Legislators will share statewide policy perspectives as part of a reflection panel.
“Fostering more inclusive places doesn’t just help Connecticut residents who are already aging, living with dementia or living with a disability. It helps all of us, both for our future selves, and also right now, with more just, equitable communities for everyone,” said Alyssa Norwood, Director of the Connecticut Age Well Collaborative. “This year’s Wellspring Award recipients are incredible thought leaders.”

Delegated by the Connecticut legislative Commission on Women, Children, Seniors, Equity & Opportunity, the Connecticut Age Well Collaborative leads the state’s livable communities initiative, per Section 17b-420a of the Connecticut General Statutes. Livable communities are inclusive, vibrant, intergenerational places where we all can thrive across the lifespan. The Collaborative’s framework, developed for Connecticut from international efforts led by the World Health Organization, includes ten key areas, including housing, transportation, economic opportunity and equity.

The Wellspring Awards are framed around the idea that Connecticut is a wellspring of innovation and inspiration. In addition to using a multi-sector approach, recipients were selected on the basis of demonstrating ongoing, meaningful and relevant community impact, as well as integrating the voices of individuals with lived experience into their work.

The Connecticut Age Well Collaborative, an initiative of Connecticut Community Care, is strongly supported by the Point32Health Foundation, the Connecticut Department of Aging and Disability Services and a growing number of funders and collective impact partners.

Hi all,

Welcome to a new week! This week, I'm happy to share that it is Careers in Aging Week!

People are living longer and populations are aging worldwide. The demand for professionals with expertise in aging is growing rapidly. Careers in Aging Week (CIAW) is sponsored by the Gerontology Society of America and observed every year by businesses, clinics, coalitions, organizations, universities, colleges, and other parties across the world. The goal of CIAW is to bring greater awareness and visibility to the wide-ranging career opportunities in the field of aging. The longevity economy is comprised of a vast, diverse group of consumers representing every possible level of health and wealth, worth about $8 trillion in the United States alone and climbing.

Please stop by our table in the Student Center outside Alumni Hall this week on Tuesday, Wednesday, or Thursday from 12-1:15pm! We will have information about our gerontology minor and undergraduate gerontology certificate as well information about #Reframing Aging and prizes to give away to those willing to play our facts on aging game!

CCSU is also participating in the 5th annual Livable Communities Conference sponsored by AARP and Masonicare this Friday, March 31st from 9:30am-12pm. It is a virtual conference with registration required. Please join us for whatever time you have available. There are several workshops worth checking out!

Dear Central Family,

We are happy to share with you some updates on the development of the new CCSU website, an essential project that kicked off last year.

The team has been focused on creating a website that is hosted on a new platform, is ADA compliant, is mobile-friendly.

Throughout the project, the team has collaborated with the faculty senate subcommittee (ITC) to ensure adherence to best practices and design guidelines. We also used information provided by faculty and students as part of our World Café Events which occurred in ’21.

We will continue to provide updates and offer training opportunities for department editors on how to post changes and add content. Please follow this link https://www.ccsu.edu/webproject/ for the latest news.

Please be aware that after April 15, all web requests will be temporarily paused. This will allow our team to work on the final site migration.

We kindly ask for your patience during this final transition phase.

Warm regards,
The Web Steering Committee
Good afternoon,

Please share this great opportunity with all your students!

Students will have the opportunity to meet the representatives of the company and learn about the multiple job opportunities that it has to offer!

Students can register and upload their resume using the following link: Medtronic Registration

Dear Colleagues,

For six months or more, the Office of Academic Affairs has had a number of discussions with the deans and graduate program coordinators, among others, to discuss how to increase graduate enrollment and how best to support Graduate Studies programs and processes. Early on, we identified a duplication of work by the School of Graduate Studies and our academic schools which, unintentionally, created inconsistencies and miscommunication, all while graduate enrollment continued to drop.

During President Toro’s Opening Meeting last month, she highlighted several key aspects of a first step in what we hope will lead to a comprehensive plan to rethink Graduate Studies. Our intent is to emphasize the deans’ oversight and more tightly align graduate studies with program coordinators and faculty. To be clear, the overall oversight remains within the Office of Academic Affairs. As you might expect, this process is complicated and still evolving. During the next months, we will continue conversations with the Graduate Studies Committee, Program Coordinators, Department Chairs, and the Registrar’s Office to develop the full plan.

At this point, let me clarify some of the key responsibilities that remain unchanged.

- The Graduate Studies Committee (GSC) is an important body that works closely with the Faculty Senate and Administration on matters of importance to graduate education.
- As the University’s Chief Academic Officer, the Provost continues to have oversight of all academic programs and is responsible for ensuring that academic policies and procedures are applied uniformly and equitably.
- The Provost is also responsible for representing Central to the Board of Regents by bringing academic program additions, changes, or discontinuations forward for review and approval.
- Under the leadership of the Provost, an Associate Vice President has oversight of Graduate Studies to ensure consistency, coherence, and cohesion in strengthening our graduate programs.
- The Deans continue to have oversight of academic programs in their respective College/School and work closely with chairs and program coordinators to develop course schedules each semester.

Since May 2022, Dr. Steven Minkler, Associate Vice President for Academic Affairs has taken on the responsibility of leading Graduate Studies when the announcement was made that Dr. Christina Robinson, Associate Vice President for Graduate Studies, Research, and Faculty Development moved into the role of Associate Vice President of Enrollment Management overseeing Undergraduate Admissions, Graduate Admissions, Financial Aid, Bursar, and Financial Literacy.

The Schools and College, as well as the GSC retain oversight of curriculum and academic policies, and many procedural functions remain in place. The Office of Academic Affairs continues to support Graduate Studies faculty, staff, and students; Dr. Minkler currently has the same responsibilities as his predecessors, such as signing off on Part-Time Faculty Appointment Forms, Graduate Assistantships and Internships, Dismissal Appeals, Capstone Project Approvals, and serving as a liaison to the Graduate Student Association.

Please feel free to reach out to Dr. Minkler (sminkler@ccsu.edu) with any questions. Amy Gagnon, Academic Affairs Administrative Operations Assistant, continues to support Graduate Studies and can be reached at amygagnon@ccsu.edu. As always, you can also reach out to gradstudies@ccsu.edu.

During this time of transition, we are focused on fostering greater collaboration among graduate program coordinators and faculty, along with increasing engagement and participation in cross-functional activities related to recruitment, retention, continuous improvement, and advancement of graduate-level scholarship for our students. As we add more accelerated programs, a seamless process across the undergraduate and graduate levels is essential.

I look forward to continued conversations and collaborations as we move forward; we are stronger together working for our University, faculty, and students.

Sincerely,

Dr. Kim Kostelis
Interim Provost
Hello – Hope you’ve all had a great semester!

Check out our upcoming Scholars For Life! Speaker Series events. This Thursday Dr. Robbin Smith will be discussing tonight’s election and the midterm elections. She sure scheduled this talk perfectly!

Also, if any faculty are interested in speaking this spring, let me know. I’m hoping to finalize the spring schedule soon. We are offering the events in-person and streaming.

Dear Faculty:

The AAUP Minority Recruitment and Retention Committee (MCCR), in partnership with the Office of Diversity and Equity, is proud to announce the 2023 AAUP-MRRC Grants program (see attachment). The AAUP-MRRC grants support eligible faculty in one or more of the following four areas: professional development in teaching or other load credit activity; creative activity appropriate to their fields; productive services; and/or professional activity.

Applications for MRCC funds will be accepted from all non-tenured faculty members who are members of minority groups as designated in the University’s affirmative action plan. The criteria for evaluating AAU-MRRC grants proposals are the quality and completeness of the proposal, and the potential of the proposed activities to assist the applicant in strengthening their credentials for retention purposes. To apply, please use the word document attached and take into consideration the list of requirements and restrictions. The AAUP Minority Recruitment & Retention Committee, working closely with the Office of Diversity and Equity, is available to assist the university in achieving its goal of recruiting and retaining faculty members of minority and other protected groups in accordance with the CSU-AAUP Collective Bargaining Agreement Article 3.4.2.

Hello CCSU Community,

We are excited to announce the CCSU Drop-In Child Care Center’s 2023 summer enrichment programs!

Now is the time to register! We offer summer programs to CCSU student-parents, faculty, and staff with children between the ages of 3 to 7 years old. For more details, visit the webpage for the CCSU Drop-In Child Care Center’s 2023 Summer Enrichment Programs.

If your child is currently enrolled at the Drop-In Child Care Center, register online for any of the Summer Enrichment Programs.

If your child is not currently enrolled at the Drop-In Center, you must first register with the center by completing the enrollment form and child health assessment record. Once all required forms are submitted, you will be able to register for the summer enrichment programs.

NOW is the time to register! Space is limited and registration is required!

Dear Colleagues,

This weekend we are preparing to welcome more than 400 students and their families to our second Accepted Students Day. These events are our best opportunity to share what makes Central shine with our prospective students and their families. You are a major part of the students' experience at Central and they are excited to meet you!

If you have not already done so I hope you will consider volunteering to help us welcome our Future Blue Devils to campus! We welcome volunteers for everything from set-up to tours, reception, and take-down. If you have any questions, please reach out to Taylor Riley or Carlos Soler.

Thank you for all you do!

Christina Robinson
Associate Vice President
Enrollment Management
Dear Central family,

Dear Colleagues,

As we head into summer, I want to provide an update on the School of Engineering, Science, and Technology search for the next Dean. First off, I would like to thank Dr. George Claffey, search chair, and all the members of the search committee for their hard work during the search process. After meeting with the search committee last week, I regret to share that the search failed.

When I reflect on the meetings President Toro and myself had with the SEST faculty before launching the search, the qualities and characteristics of the next dean that were shared during those meetings are exemplified in Dr. Steven Minkler. While we all planned to find a qualified candidate, Dr. Minkler has been providing continuity in leadership within the school. Additionally, through my observations, as well as feedback from faculty, students, and the search committee, he has been collaboratively leading the school forward. I am pleased to share that Dr. Steven Minkler has been promoted to serve as the next Dean of the School of Engineering, Science, and Technology.

As Dr. Minkler moves into the dean’s role, he will no longer serve as Associate Vice President for Academic Affairs. Yet, to provide continuity within Academic Affairs he will remain having oversight of the Center for Teaching and Innovation, Continuing Education, and the Library until further notice.

Leading our Graduate Studies is an integral aspect of the AVP position and thus, I have asked Dr. John Tully to serve as Interim Associate Vice President for Academic Affairs. Dr. Tully has been serving as a Special Assistant to the Provost and supervises the Center for International Education, as well as providing support for our interdisciplinary and multicultural student programs. He will continue to have oversight of CIE and our interdisciplinary programs, along with providing leadership within Graduate Studies. I am confident that Dr. Tully will continue to work with Graduate Admissions, the Graduate Studies Committee, our Graduate Programs and Faculty, and Academic Deans to lead us in the right direction as we strive toward increasing the percentage of students enrolled in graduate programs to 25%.

Dr. Carmen Veloria, Associate Vice President for Academic Affairs, will provide support our Center for Africana Studies, Latin American, Latino and Caribbean Center (LALCC), as well as to establish our new center, the Asian American, Asian, and Pacific Islander (AAAPI) Center. She will continue to oversee our Career Development Office, Travelers Edge Scholars Program, Success Central, and the Central Access Success and Academics (CASA) unit, including our Educational Opportunity Program, CARE Scholars, and TRiO programs.
Please join me in congratulating Dr. Steven Minkler and Dr. John Tully as they take on their new roles.

Sincerely,

Dr. Kimberly T. Kostelis
Provost and Vice President of Academic Affairs

Dear colleagues,

I am hoping that you are enjoying your summer. This year, the CCSU Office of Veterans Affairs would like to add an element to the Veterans Day Recognition Ceremony (taking place on November 9, 2023) by showing pictures of the CCSU faculty and staff members that served or are currently serving in the U.S. Armed Forces.

If you would like to participate by sharing a picture of yourself in the service, together with information such as dates of service, branch of service, military specialty, rank, and the CCSU department where you currently work, please email me your information at gutierrezc@ccsu.edu, by 15 October 2023.

This is a great way for students and colleagues with military service to connect. I thank you for your service and encourage you to participate.

Thank you.

CCESR events that happened this past month…

On Wednesday, September 14th, CCESR set up shop at CCSU’s Club Fair. Whether students are looking for an internship, volunteer placement, or research opportunity, CCESR can guide them in the right direction.

On Wednesday, September 14th, CCESR, Department of Criminology and Criminal Justice, and Institute for the Study of Crime and Justice met with families from the North-Oak Neighborhood at Smalley Elementary School’s Open House and began survey dissemination for the “Amplifying Neighborhood Voices: Community Perceptions of Public Safety” project.

On Friday, September 16th, CCESR and First Year Experience celebrated Constitution Day with trivia, prizes, and lunch. Students were able to learn more about the Constitution, its history, and current civic engagement opportunities in the community.

On Saturday, September 17th, CCESR took part in The North-Oak Neighborhood Revitalization Zone and NBRJC’s community clean-up. NB residents and the CCSU community gathered at Willow St Park. CCESR provided breakfast and participants spent the morning cleaning, meeting new people, and making valuable connections in the community.

Professors from CCSU’s CLASS initiated the Mobile Monument Project which engages people in discussions that lead to public monument design via live and interactive street theater. The project has engaged students from the CCSU Art and Design and Theater departments, public high school students from the House of Teens at the YWCA run East Side Community Center in New Britain, and students from the Academia di Belle Arti di Venezia in Venice, Italy. The goal is to reverse power dynamics, celebrate regular citizens, and spark conversations about leaders worth being on a plinth. CCESR is proud to help support this project.

School of Business

On September 20th, the CCSU School of Business, working with the Center for Career Development, held an Accounting & Finance Career Fair. The fair was open to current students, alumni, and outside visitors. 39 employers from various profit and non-profit businesses across the state were available to meet with the nearly 200 students in attendance. Students were able to gather information about the different businesses, employment and internship opportunities, and co-op positions.

School of Education & Professional Studies:

The new CCSU Drop-in Child Care Center in Carroll Hall, now serving children of CCSU students aged 3- to 12-years-old, officially opened this fall. The center also will provide new experiential learning opportunities to CCSU students who are enrolled in the Early Childhood and Elementary Education programs. The center has hired 12 student assistants so far, and student assistants will remain a vital part of the center’s staff going forward.

School of Engineering, Science & Technology:

The Computer Science Department’s Software Engineering Studio allows teams of students to solve challenging, real-world software issues brought forth by internal and external companies. Over the course of 1-2 semesters, students carry out the project from start to finish typically resulting in a prototype or functional software system.

Athletics:

At the Annual Student-Athlete Opening Meeting, student athletes were asked to contribute donations for Maria’s Place, the food pantry on campus. Overall, the Athletics department was able to donate over 3,000 items on behalf of the 400+ student athletes at CCSU.
Upcoming Events in November:

10/17-12/1 - Reflect & Preserve: What Climate Change Means to Me, Writing Multimedia Contest

11/10, 11/18 - CCSU School of Business, Junior Achievement Days

11/11 - Faculty Workshop, “Focus on Community Engagement”

11/12 - Community Action Poverty Simulation

11/17 - Empty Bowls Event

CCESR Events that happened this past month...

On Saturday, October 8th, CCESR attended the New Britain Main Street fair, a street-style festival in downtown NB, to connect with community members and organizations and raise awareness on the types of partnerships that can be created.

On Tuesday, October 11th, CCESR set up shop at CCSU’s Career Fair. Whether students are looking for an internship, volunteer placement or research opportunity, CCESR can guide them in the right direction.

On Thursday, October 13th, CCESR honored William A. O’Neill Endowed Chair Holder, Donald DeFronzo, for his extensive career in public service. While Don is preparing to end his 6-year tenure as chairholder, his contributions have made a lasting mark on the city of NB and state of CT.

On Friday, October 14th, CCESR’s Beth Merenstein hosted a workshop for faculty, “Incorporating experiential learning opportunities into the classroom”. The session is available to view on CCESR’s webpage. Join us for the next workshop on Nov. 11th, “Focus on Community Engagement”. To view the workshop or learn more information, visit: https://www.ccsu.edu/communityEngagement/faculty/resources-workshops.html

On Thursday, October 20th, CCESR collaborated with First Year Experience on the event, “Reduce, Reuse, REGISTER: Combatting Climate Change through Civic Engagement”. Students were able to discuss the importance of voting, and the impact it can have on climate justice. The League of Women Voters and Indivisible Connecticut had tables around campus for students to register to vote.

On Friday, October 21st, CCESR attended New Life’s Winter Gear & Coats distribution. CCESR, in collaboration with CCSU’s ISCJ, donated jackets and administered surveys for the “Amplifying Neighborhood Voices: Community Perceptions of Public Safety” project.

On Monday, October 31st, CCESR had a table at the New Britain Halloween Trick or Treat Safe Zone to hand out candy for Halloween in a pedestrian-safe environment.

On Saturday, October 15th, CCESR participated in New Britain Fire Safety Day. The event was an opportunity for the Fire Department to provide the community with demonstrations and information on fire safety, while offering an afternoon of fun for the whole family. CCESR had a rock painting booth which was a hit!

CCSU’s Theatre Department invites high school students to Friday matinees of their mainstage shows. On Friday, October 14th, students from Middletown High School came to see the show, “Constellations”, and participate in a “talkback” with the cast and crew members. In addition, Professor Christie Maturo has been offering auditions workshops and visits to high school drama programs. Professor Maturo and several CCSU students recently visited Bristol Central High School.

School of Business

Professor Drew Harris is currently teaching ENT/MGT 355, Managing a Growing Business, which provides students hands-on experience working with organizations seeking to expand their businesses. One current collaboration is with the CT Startup Podcast, founded and produced by two CCSU Alumni, Eric Francis and Chris DeMorro. The podcast has been growing into a content studio for the entrepreneurial ecosystem in CT, becoming the voice of start-ups in CT. Students in Prof. Harris’ class are helping identify and book guests for episodes, will participate in production, editing, distribution and promotion. The project goal is to have six months’ worth of episodes booked or produced and momentum to acquire sponsorships and grants to sustain the business. To learn more about the podcast, visit, https://ctstartup.com/

School of Education & Professional Studies

NextGen Educators is an initiative that began during the pandemic and is run by the CT State Department of Education and CCSU. The initiative works to bring highly motivated CCSU education students to public school classrooms providing hands-on experience and mentorship while assisting district needs. Unlike student teaching, these positions do not count towards field experience requirements but do provide paid opportunities to gain additional experience and build their professional networks earlier.

School of Engineering, Science & Technology

SEST faculty, Dr. Chad Williams and Dr. Mahdieh Zabihimayvan, are actively mentoring several Farmington High School students’ research experiences. The students were connected to CCSU after the department ran the GenCyber cybersecurity camp this summer with a National Security Agency (NSA) and NSF GenCyber grant. Dr. Zabihimayvan is working with one student on her senior capstone project, and Dr. Williams is mentoring a group of students on machine learning and data mining related to cybersecurity intrusion detection. After attending the GenCyber camp, two of those high school students created a Cybersecurity Club that now has 50 student members. The club works with the CS and CEGT department and CCSU’s Cybersecurity Club to organize various events and activities.

Athletics

The CCSU football team hosted The Beautiful Lives Project which gives people with disabilities the opportunity to actively participate in activities and events that may not have been available to them previously due to physical or facility limitations. The CCSU student athletes and members of BLP enjoyed a perfect New England Fall Day while participating in football training, drills, and team bonding. The group then tailgated at the football game on October 22nd and took part in pregame activities.
Upcoming Events:

10/17-12/1 - Reflect & Preserve: What Climate Change Means to Me, Writing Multimedia Contest. Submission deadline 12/1, winning participants announced in the Spring semester.

1/20 - MLK Breakfast/Day of Service. This upcoming MLK breakfast will be followed by a campus-wide Day of Service. More details to come!

CCESR events that happened this past month...

On Wednesday, November 2\textsuperscript{nd}, CCESR’s Donald DeFronzo presented at the City Charter Referendum Open Forum. The event was held to discuss the proposed city charter amendments on the Nov. 8\textsuperscript{th} ballot that represented the biggest changes to city government in a generation. Don and John McNamara, contributing writer for the NB Progressive, gave presentations followed by a lively Q&A.

On Thursday, November 17\textsuperscript{th}, CCESR attended and contributed resources to the Empty Bowls event organized by CCSU’s Intro to Management Class. The event was held at Smalley Elementary School to raise money for the Friendship Center in New Britain. Read more about the event in the School of Business section!

On Saturday, November 19\textsuperscript{th}, CCESR and ISCJ attended the Coat and Winter Gear Drive held by New Life II. CCESR set up donation boxes around campus asking the CCSU community to donate brand new coats, hats, scarves, etc. to be handed out at the event. The Center and ISCJ also administered surveys for the “Amplifying Neighborhood Voices: Community Perceptions of Public Safety” project at the event. (Photos to the right)

On Friday, November 11\textsuperscript{th}, CCESR’s Beth Merenstein and the Center for Teaching and Innovation welcomed representatives of the United Way for the faculty workshop, “Focus on Community Engagement”. The workshop provided information and resources on community engagement/partnerships and included a fun literacy kit activity. The next workshop, Integrating Community Engagement and EJI (Equity, Justice, and Inclusion), will be held on February 10\textsuperscript{th}. As part of the Next Generation of Student Success, Diversity, Innovation, and Community Engagement grant, students from Vinal Tech High School visited the University. Students received a campus tour and got to know some Criminology professors and Criminal Justice Club leaders.

School of Business

Professor Sarah Stookey’s Intro to Management Class (MGT 295) organized an Empty Bowl dinner at Smalley Elementary School in New Britain. Empty Bowls is a grassroots effort that uses dinners as fundraising events to combat food insecurity and the stigma surrounding it. Individuals were able to purchase tickets, pick out a handmade bowl created by students from CCSU and Smalley, and enjoy a simple meal of soup and bread. The goal of the event was to provide students taking MGT 295 the opportunity to implement skills covered during the course (planning, strategy, etc.) while contributing to an important community partner, the Friendship Center.

School of Education & Professional Studies

Dr. Reinaldo Rojas from the Social Work Department has been collaborating with the YWCA of New Britain since 2018 and is a member of the advisory board for the Cultivating Healthy Communities Grant. The grant helped establish the East side Community Center which provides services to the neighborhood. Dr. Rojas has incorporated his classes into various projects, including the Photo Voice project which aims to involve teen community members in a neighborhood revitalization process through research and community action projects. The YWCA began later began training some of those teens to become Community Health Workers (CHW). With the CHWs, Dr. Rojas also involved his community practice students in organizing several community outreach events to promote community health and vaccination against Covid-19.

School of Engineering, Science & Technology

On November 5th, CCSU’s Computer Science faculty Chad Williams and Samir Hamada along with the Computer Science Club, with support from CCESR, hosted its 4th annual Random Hacks of Kindness Jr. – Kids Coding for a Cause event (RHoK Jr.). The event pairs non-profits with a team of 4th-8th grade students and CCSU mentors who will spend a day developing a prototype for an app customized for the organization. RHoK Jr. gives CCSU students an opportunity to mentor and inspire young students while giving non-profit groups a technological boost. Patrice Gans, founder and director of Random Hacks of Kindness, developed the program as a way for young students to learn first-hand how technology can create solutions for social good and by the end of the day they will see how technology can have a positive impact on someone’s life.

Athletics

In November, the CCSU Volleyball team held a paper and pencil drive for Smalley Elementary School. The team collected over 14,000 pencils and 120 reams of paper for the schools.
Dear CCSU Community,

The Center for Community Engagement & Social Research (CCESR) would like to thank you for your support throughout the Fall 2022 semester. The primary goal of the Center is to integrate teaching, research, and service through community engagement (CE). Additionally, we want all students to engage in multiple experiential learning opportunities, for faculty to develop scholarship with a community focus, and for our community to work with us to address their most pressing needs. Doing so requires a high level of commitment to CE from all members of the CCSU community. With the tireless effort made by each and every one of you, we have been able to work towards achieving that goal.

In addition, the Center has thoroughly enjoyed being able to assist and highlight some of the amazing work being done by each of the different schools here at CCSU. It is truly inspiring to see all the CE projects occurring around campus. Great work is being done, and we cannot wait to see what comes next.

Once again, the CCESR family would like to thank you for the contributions you have made to the Center, the CCSU Community, and the surrounding areas. We hope you have a happy holiday season and enjoy the Winter break!

Sincerely,
The Center for Community Engagement and Social Research Team- Beth Merenstein, Donald DeFronzo, Christian Reyes, MacKenzie Gould, Victoria Richards, and Angela Alvarado

A Special Thank You...

Donald J. DeFronzo

The CCESR family would also like to thank Donald J. DeFronzo for all that he has done for the Center and CCSU community. Don will be retiring from his appointed position as the Governor William A. O’Neil Endowed Chair in Public Policy and Practical Politics this December, a position he has held since 2016. He was chosen for the position for his outstanding contribution to the understanding and shaping of public affairs in Connecticut. Among his many accomplishments, Don has served as State Senator for the 6th District in Connecticut’s General Assembly, Mayor of the City of New Britain, Executive Director of the Human Resources Agency of New Britain and was a planning analyst in the state’s Office of Policy and Management. With over 30 years in public service, Don has brought an unmatched level of expertise and wisdom to the Center. Thank you for everything, Don.

CCESR is excited to announce a number of events occurring in the Spring 2023 semester!

January 20th- MLK Breakfast/Day of Service

The Center for Community Engagement and Social Research (CCESR), Office of Equity and Inclusion (OEI), and Academic Affairs are joining forces to organize CCSU’s annual MLK Breakfast and Day of Service to honor and celebrate the legacy of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.

Breakfast will be hosted in Alumni Hall at 8:30am followed by an interactive symposium on Creating an Inclusive Campus featuring Dr. Ken Coopwood Sr., Owner/CEO of Coopwood Diversity Leadership & Education Universal. Afterwards, guests will be given the opportunity to participate in a campus-wide Day of Service. In partnership with local community organizations, participants will sign up for one of the service-oriented activities being hosted on or off-campus. Activities will be geared towards homelessness/hygiene and education/literacy. We hope to see you there!

February 24th- Faculty Workshop: Integrating CE and EJI

Join us for CCESR’s faculty workshop, Integrating Community Engagement and EJI (Equity, Justice, and Inclusion). CCESR’s Executive Director, Beth Merenstein, regularly hosts workshops to share ideas and practical guidance on increasing experiential learning opportunities for students and how to get more involved with community partners. This particular workshop will provide information on how to effectively integrate Equity, Justice, and Inclusion in Community Engagement work.

April- 3rd Annual Global Environmental Sustainability Symposium

Each year, the Global Environmental Sustainability Action Coalition (GESAC) at CCSU host its Annual Global Environmental Sustainability Symposium. The event hosts a number of guest speakers to discuss various topics pertaining to the annual theme. In addition to its regular schedule of events, the symposium will also welcome CCSU winners of the writing/multimedia contest, “Reflect & Preserve: What Climate Change Means to Me”, to present their submissions. The contest was sponsored by CCESR, GESAC, and the CCSU Geography Department. All matriculated undergraduate and graduate students were invited to participate for the chance to win scholarships ranging from $250-$2,500.

April 20th and 21st- Earth Day

Earth Day is an annual celebration aimed at raising awareness on the importance of environmental protection and sustainability while recognizing the achievements that have been made. This year, CCESR will be hosting a 2-day Earth Day celebration involving panel discussions featuring climate justice activists, film and discussion, and services activities in the community.

More information on each event will be available closer to the date. As always, if you have any questions or are looking for more information, feel free to visit our website or email us!

Community Engagement Around Campus

Carol A. Ammon College of Liberal Arts & Social Sciences
The Intro to Community and Civic Engagement students had an eventful fall semester! Led by Dr. Schnobrich-Davis and Dr. Soper students took a walking tour of New Britain, visiting the NB Museum of American Art, the NB Public Library, and the NB Police Department. In Hartford, students participated in a guided tour of the Capitol Building and completed a service activity at Sun Scholars. There were impactful presentations from Hands On Hartford – Faces of Homelessness Speakers’ Bureau, UR Community Cares, and CCSU alumni working in the nonprofit field. The Community Engagement minor, now housed in the Economics Department (CLASS) consists of 17 credits, with three required CEN courses, one being an internship. The minor is a great compliment to many majors, students learn the theory behind community and civic engagement and gain valuable skills that are transferable to all fields.

School of Business
Professor Cheryl Crespi coordinated with Junior Achievement (JA) to bring CCSU School of Business students to schools in Hartford. JA is the world’s largest organization dedicated to educating students in grades K-12 about entrepreneurship, work readiness, and financial literacy. CCSU students visited Parkville Community School and West Middle School and provided JA training by teaching lessons, providing fun activities, and sharing their experiences. Not only did CCSU students teach valuable life skills, but they were given the opportunity to connect with students and serve as role models.

School of Education & Professional Studies
Dr. Allison Seifert Gonzales’s EXS 215: Physiological Aspects of the Human Performance of Aging course collaborated with the New Britain Senior Center to implement group and individualized fitness programming with the seniors throughout the semester. Every Tuesday, 21 students in the Exercise Science Program went to the NBSC and met with 21 seniors. Students conducted initial fitness assessments then provided weekly personal training sessions with group exercises mixed in. Dr. Seifert Gonzales teaches the physiological process of aging and how staying active is crucial, so this collaboration allowed students to apply their knowledge in a real-world setting while offering beneficial social activities for seniors in the community.

School of Engineering, Science & Technology
CCSU C.A.R.E.S. (Collaboration for Assistive Resources Equipment and Services) is a group of students and faculty advisors on campus working to solve problems and foster the spirit of community service. In 2015, they held their first Go Baby Go! Workshop. Founded by the University of Delaware, Go Baby Go! Provides mobility (and play!) to very young children with special needs by adapting toy ride-on cars. Since then, 11 high schools and four middle schools in CT have participated in Go Baby Go!, including New Britain High School where CCSU students and high schoolers worked together to modify four cars for local families. This touching story was featured on an episode of CBS’s Uplift Series in 2019. CCSU C.A.R.E.S. frequently receives requests from new districts interested in starting new Go Baby Go! Programs. To date, CCSU has provided 184 special needs children with toy ride-on cars at no cost to the families. Watch a video here!

Athletics
For the 27th year, CCSU Athletics is proud to take part in Samaritan's Purse Operation Christmas Child. Blue Devil student-athletes, coaches and staff packed 132 shoe boxes of gifts, schools supplies and hygiene items for children around the world. Since 1993, 198 million children in more than 170 countries and territories have received an Operation Christmas Child shoebox.

Community Engagement Database: Collaboratory

If you were involved in the planning and implementation of a community engagement or public service event, program, or course, fill out this brief Microsoft Form to have it added to Collaboratory or find more info on our website.

Collaboratory is a searchable, online database that collects information about these activities to help us understand the extent of CCSU's engagement in and with community. This information can be viewed by internal and external members of the institution. It improves our ability to tell our institutional community engagement story--the who, what, where, when, and to what end.

For any questions, contact Victoria Richards, at vrichards@ccsu.edu

CE Resource: Coalition of Urban and Metropolitan Universities

CCSU is now one of the newest institutional members of the Coalition of Urban and Metropolitan Universities (CUMU). CUMU is the longest-running and largest organization committed to serving and connecting urban and metropolitan universities and their partners. There are several ways administrators, faculty, and staff can benefit from CCSU's membership, including:

- Metropolitan Universities Journal: CUMU’s peer reviewed, quarterly online journal for scholarship on cutting-edge topics impacting urban and metropolitan universities

- Programming: Connecting and Learning Opportunities: CUMU has a number of virtual and in-person opportunities for institutions and community partners to discuss their work, contemporary challenges and issues affecting various communities, new opportunities, and exchange ideas

Community Partner Highlight

The Community Foundation of Greater New Britain
The Community Foundation of Greater NB is a 501(c)(3) public charity and one of the oldest community foundations in the nation. Since 1941, they have been a signature resource for those who aspire to make the community a better place. They have more than 200 charitable funds that work to support a wide range of programs and services in the Berlin, New Britain, Plainville, and Southington areas. One ongoing program is the Degree Completion Initiative. The program helps juniors and seniors experiencing financial difficulties pay for some or all their tuition and fees allowing them to continue their studies. In partnership with CCSU, the Foundation provided support to 22 students from 2019-2021.
Upcoming Events:

3/2- Center for Africana Studies Annual Conference
3/7- Be Entrepreneurial Final Pitch
3/8- Business Career Fair
3/20- AAPI Festival Day
3/25- Admitted Students Day
3/29- Faculty Workshop: Integrating Community Engagement and EJI (Equity, Justice, and Inclusion)
4/13-4/15- Squid Game and Beyond Conference

On February 1st, CCESR attended the Friendship Center's opening of the Hope Connection Center, a 7-day/week drop-in center for those at risk of or experiencing homelessness. Read more in our Community Partner Highlight Section!

On February 21st, CCESR attended the Greater New Britain Chamber of Commerce's 3rd Annual Mardi Gras Raffle event. (See photos to the right).

On February 22nd, CCESR co-sponsored the Junior Achievement event, Be Entrepreneurial. Read more about the event in the School of Business Section. (Bottom right photo).

On February 23rd, CCESR co-sponsored the Center for Africana Studies "Start with A Dream College Exploration Day". The event invited students from East Hartford, Meriden, and Waterbury Public Schools to visit campus. Students were given a tour, provided information on financial literacy and different resources available, and heard CCSU student stories.

This month, CCESR’s Executive Director, Beth Merenstein, became a new member of the Rotary Club of New Britain-Berlin. The service club works to raise funds for its scholarship program, local community projects, and the efforts of the Rotary Foundation worldwide.

CCESR WELCOMES OUR NEW WILLIAM A. O'NEILL ENDOWED CHAIR

CCESR is proud to announce Ed Vargas as the next Governor William A. O'Neill Endowed Chair in Public Policy and Practical Politics at CCSU. Vargas was appointed after a national search by the University and will began his tenure on Friday, February 4th. Vargas has a wealth of knowledge and experience to bring to the position with over 45 years of experience in public service. He was a teacher in the Hartford Public School System before being elected to the CT House of Representatives in 2012, a position he held for five terms. In 2020, he was appointed Deputy speaker of the state House. Throughout his professional career, Vargas has also served on a number of boards and commissions and held a variety of leadership positions. The Center could not be more excited to welcome him and cannot wait to see the great work he will do.

CAROL A. AMMON
COLLEGE OF LIBERAL ARTS & SOCIAL SCIENCES

Dr. Diana Cohen from the Political Science Department is working with CCSU students on an exciting collaboration between CCESR and the Connecticut Department of Energy and Environmental Protection (DEEP). For the remainder of this calendar year, students will be playing a vital role in data collection for the Statewide Comprehensive Outdoor Recreation Plan (SCORP). Currently, three undergraduate students are working with Dr. Cohen to help design a new survey that seeks to understand the behaviors and attitudes of visitors to Connecticut’s outdoor recreation areas. Students are also involved in the distribution of numerous surveys associated with the SCORP. We look forward to updating the CCSU community on this powerful community partnership!

SCHOOL OF BUSINESS

Junior Achievement (JA) is an organization dedicated to educating K-12 students about entrepreneurship, work readiness and financial literacy through experiential programs. On 2/24, the JA, Be Entrepreneurial Challenge was held at CCSU. Seven teams of high school students from various schools created and presented business ideas correlating to the event’s theme of sustainability. Four teams will be moving on to the next round on March 7th. There was an impressive lineup of CCSU professors who volunteered. Dr. Keshab Acharya, Dr. Chris Lee, and Dr. Beth Merenstein did an excellent job planning and running the event. In addition, Dr. Hyoun-Sook Lim and Dr. Ran Liu taught different sessions to the high school students, and Dr. Chris Lee, Dr. Hyoun-Sook Lim, and Dr. Richard Zhang served as judges. Eric Francis, CEO of Trifecta Ecosystems and CCSU alum also served as a judge and delivered a speech on his experiences and entrepreneurship. Prof. Mike Nicastro also recruited a number of CCSU students who played a crucial role serving as mentors. CCESR was happy to be a part of the planning and execution of this successful event.

SCHOOL OF EDUCATION & PROFESSIONAL STUDIES

Last November, Dr. Timothy Scott from the Social Work Dept., along with two current social work students who are veterans (Tom Alfano and Bernie Sykes) and one former student (Matt Dionne), initiated a statewide group for veterans who are social workers/social work students. Two weeks ago, the group became a standing committee of the National Association of Social Workers-CT (NASW-CT). They currently have a dozen members who are BSW and MSW students and practicing social workers around the state. Together, they are developing plans to engage in advocacy and education work with veterans, recruit more veterans into the social work profession and support them along the way, and provide a space where they can have a shared sense of purpose and belonging. They will be presenting at the NASW-CT conference in June, and have submitted a proposal to present at the Council on Social Work Education (CSWE) Annual Meeting in Atlanta next October.

ATHLETICS

The CCSU National Girls and Women in Sports Day celebration occurred on Feb. 4th. Organized by Associate Director of Athletics, Amy Strickland, and Assistant Director of Athletics, Molly McCarthy, the Blue Devils welcomed around 50 girls from K-6th grade. The event began with a sports clinic that introduced the participants to the Division 1 athletic programs, as well as dance and cheer, that CCSU sponsors. Athletes taught drills and skills to the girls, who were able to experience soccer, softball, lacrosse, track and field, and volleyball. Afterwards, everyone enjoyed pizza and made posters for the women’s basketball game they watched later on. After a thrilling win, the CCSU Women’s Basketball team signed autographs for the girls. COMMUNITY PARTNER HIGHLIGHT

The Friendship Service Center

Since 1968, the Friendship Service Center (FSC) has been a place where the hungry are fed, the homeless are sheltered, and everyone is welcome. The agency provides a continuum of services ranging from emergency shelter, to transitional living programs, permanent supportive housing options, and more.

On February 1, they opened the Hope Connection Center, a drop-in location open 7 days/week providing resources and referrals for those at risk of homelessness or those currently experiencing homelessness. CCESR was honored to attend the ribbon cutting event and show our support. With this exciting new opening, they are in need of some additional items and are seeking donations. Click here to view their wish list.

EVENTS FROM THIS PAST MONTH

On March 2nd, the CCESR team participated in the United Way’s Read Across America Day. CCESR staff along with CCSU students, faculty, staff, and other community members traveled to different elementary schools in New Britain and read “Hair Love” to several classrooms.

On March 8th, CCESR celebrated International Women’s Day by attending the Women’s History Month Luncheon put together by the Department of Communications & Women, Gender, & Sexuality Studies here at CCSU. Tracey Heather Strain (Wesleyan) shared part of her film, “Zora Neale Hurston: Claiming a Space” which was then followed by a stimulating Q&A led by Dr. Evelyn Phillips (CCSU).

On March 21st, CCESR held its first CCSU Community Engagement Advisory Board meeting. The purpose of the board is to strengthen our relationship with the larger community while gaining valuable knowledge, expertise, and guidance from community leaders. Members are from various community organizations including, GNB Community Foundation, CMHA, NB Chamber of Commerce, OIC, the Friendship Center, YWCA, the North–Oak Community, New Life II, the NB Mayor’s Office, NB Downtown District, and the CCSU academic schools.

REFLECT & PRESERVE: WHAT CLIMATE CHANGE MEANS TO ME
CONTEST WINNERS

During the 2022-2023 academic year, CCESR sponsored a writing/multimedia contest, Reflect & Preserve: What Climate Change Means to Me. This contest presented students an opportunity to discuss the issue of climate change to bring a personal perspective to a global crisis. Winners were announced this month, and CCESR awarded a total of $10,500 (up to $2,500 each) to student participants! Congratulations to our winning submissions’ authors:

- "Photo Ark Meets the Lawns" by Michelle Carrasquillo
- "We Are Failing Our Planet" by Chloe Zito
- "Blockbuster Temperatures" by Samantha Jones
- "The Sooner We Start, The Better It Is" by Areesha Waseem
- "Our near future" by Ty Pales
- "Ecostrike Photograph" by Agatha Hueller
- "Climate Change Submission" by Sofia Thalheimer

Four of our contest winners will be presenting at GESAC’s Annual Sustainability Symposium on April 3rd, 2023 in Alumni Hall! Click here for more details on the symposium. We hope to see you there!
COMMUNITY ENGAGEMENT EXPERIENTIAL LEARNING STIPEND (CEELS)

CCESR is excited to announce our newest initiative, the Community Engagement Experiential Learning Stipend (CEELS)! Our Center encourages all students to engage in experiential learning opportunities, but understands that not everyone has the financial resources available to take on unpaid roles. As a result, we are offering stipends for students who are in an unpaid internship or doing unpaid work in a research setting. Eligible students can apply and would receive $18/hour with a maximum of $3,000 (this averages to 20hrs/week for an 8-week program). To learn more, click here!

On March 31st, Andrea June and Carrie Andreolotti, CCSU Professors from the Psychological Science Department, participated in "Livability 2023: Our Aging Landscape". The virtual conference was held by AARP Connecticut and Masonicare, a not-for-profit integrated senior care continuum, along with various other Universities and agencies. The event included a number of presentations and workshops with Prof. June and Prof. Andreolotti presenting on "The Work of an Age-Friendly University". During their segment, they highlighted some of the great intergenerational and community engagement work CCSU has done around aging.

SCHOOL OF BUSINESS

The CFA Global Research Challenge is a worldwide stock research competition hosted by the Chartered Financial Analyst (CFA) society each year. The participating student teams need to conduct an equity analysis of a public company, specified by the CFA Society. The activities include conducting detailed financial analysis on the company, making investor conference calls with the company's CFO, building valuation models, writing a professional analyst research report, and presenting the final recommendation on the company's stock to a panel of expert judges.

This year, 15 teams from 11 universities (including Yale) joined the local competition hosted by the Hartford CFA society. Out of the two CCSU teams participating, one made it to the finalists round (top four). The students in the finalist team were: Hyun Kang, Nathaniel Chandler, Mia Servidone, and Lucas Roosli, who are all senior students with finance major. Click here for more information.

SCHOOL OF EDUCATION & PROFESSIONAL STUDIES

This Spring 2023 semester, the SEPS Office of School and Community Partnerships placed 90 student teacher candidates with 115 cooperating teachers in 41 districts across Connecticut. Our well-prepared candidates are meeting the challenges that developing teachers experience with determination and a passion for students and learning! In the coming weeks, we will welcome our district partners to Barnard Hall to serve on interview panels for Fall 2023 student teachers. During these interviews, district teachers and administrators join CCSU faculty and the Dean’s Office to engage with our candidates in a formative interview process. We appreciate the role that our partners play in preparing our amazing candidates for the classroom!

SCHOOL OF ENGINEERING, SCIENCE, & TECHNOLOGY

A number of professors from SEST are involved in The DEEP STEM Program (DEEP- Discover, Enjoy, Explore, and Practice; STEM- Science, Technology, Engineering, and Mathematics). The extracurricular program is designed to excite high school students about careers in STEM. It is a year long program consisting of five events in which students have the opportunity to connect with CCSU STEM faculty and students by participating in various academic, hands-on activities and events.

On March 11th, Dr. Smith and Dr. Broderick were involved in the event, "Life of Early Earth". The workshop allowed students to learn about and observe organisms that thrive in extreme mimicking conditions present billions of years ago. They then investigated how those microorganisms could be applied towards green energy production through the creation of mud batteries.

Each of the women listed below is either an alumna of CCSU; a present or former faculty member; or a present or former staff member of the University. Several of the honorees are former student-athletes for the Blue Devils.

CCSU’S TITLE IX TRAILBLAZERS:
1970s - Justice Carmen Espinosa, Dr. Jannette Carey
1980s - Awilda Saavedra Reasco, Dr. Kathleen Pirog
1990s - Jacqueline Cobbina-Boivin, Amy Strickland
2000s - Kristin Kropp, Dr. Katelyn Ferranti
2010s - Sherise Truman, Marissa Quesnel

COMMUNITY PARTNER HIGHLIGHT

OIC of New Britain is a nonprofit organization that works to empower and assist youth with barriers to self-sufficiency through job training and career development programs.

OIC is currently working with CCSU on multiple projects. The Chemistry department is involved in OIC’s STEMLinx program, which provides students ages 14-21 an opportunity to pursue and build their knowledge and skills in science, technology, engineering, and math.

In addition, Dr. Sarah Miller, CCSU Chemistry Professor, is working with OIC on a hands-on demo experiment that would involve OIC’s MMSA Step-Up Program youth in April 2023. The program is designed for 8th graders transitioning to H.S. and follows them through grade 12. Upperclassmen participate in Career Competency Skill development (interviewing, internships, job shadowing, etc.). The collaboration will also involve a CCSU tour to OIC’s Men of Many Colors H.S. program.

MAY 2023 EDITION

communityengagement@ccsu.edu | https://www.ccsu.edu/communityEngagement/ | Insta:ccsu_ccesr
Thank You CCSU Community

Dear CCSU Family,

As the Spring 2023 semester comes to an end, The Center for Community Engagement & Social Research (CCESR) would like to thank you for all your hard work throughout the semester. The primary goal of the Center is to integrate teaching, research, and service through community engagement (CE). That work is not possible without forging and maintaining strong relationships with both on and off-campus entities, and we recognize the vital role faculty and staff have played in the University's CE endeavors.

Additionally, CCESR wants all students to engage in multiple experiential learning opportunities, for faculty to develop scholarship with a community focus, and for our community to work with us to address their most pressing needs. With the help of faculty and staff, we have made strides towards achieving that goal. It has been amazing to see all the CE projects and initiatives faculty are involved in, and CCESR is excited to support and highlight those efforts in the coming semesters.

Once again, the CCESR family would like to thank you for the contributions you have made to the Center, the CCSU Community, and its surrounding areas. We hope you have an amazing (and well-deserved) summer break.

Sincerely,

The Center for Community Engagement & Social Research Team:

- Beth Merenstein, Executive Director
- Ed Vargas, O'Neill Endowed Chair in Public Policy & Practical Politics
- Christian Reyes, Program Assistant
- Kamilah Hastings, Assistant
- MacKenzie Gould, University Assistant
- Angela Alvarado, Student Worker
CCESR will be releasing a newsletter in August with upcoming events and opportunities to be aware of for the upcoming Fall 2023 semester. Stay tuned! There are also a number of exciting events occurring this summer:

- 5/20- Celebrate New Britain, Downtown street festival, 12:00pm-8:00pm
- 5/25- Accepted Students Day, 4:00pm-7:00pm
- 5/30- New Britain Memorial Day Parade
- 6/3- Opportunities Industrialization Center of New Britain (OIC) Annual Gala, 5:30pm
- 6/11- Art in Our Heart Pop-Up Art Show in Downtown New Britain, 10am-2pm

COMMUNITY ENGAGEMENT EXPERIENTIAL LEARNING STIPEND

CCESR is currently piloting our first ever Community Engagement Experiential Learning Stipend (CEELS) for the summer 2023 and plans on continuing it into the Fall and Spring Semesters.

Our Center encourages all students to engage in experiential learning opportunities, but understands that not everyone has the financial resources available to take on unpaid roles. As a result, we are offering stipends for students who are in an unpaid internship or doing unpaid work in a research setting this summer. Eligible students were able to apply and receive $18/hour with a maximum of $3,000 (this averages to 20hrs/week for an 8-week program). The deadline to apply for the summer was May 15. However, we plan on continuing it into the academic year.

More information about applying for the stipend in the Fall semester will be available in our Summer Newsletter. To learn more, click here!

CCESR works to build mutually beneficial relationships with various partners across the City of New Britain & surrounding towns. By collaborating, we are able to gain valuable insight and knowledge, recognize community identified needs, provide resources, and work towards collective goals and initiatives.

To better understand those needs, CCESR put together a Community Engagement Advisory Board consisting of 11 Community Partners and a number of CCSU representatives. The board met twice throughout the semester (3/21 & 5/9).

CCESR also co-hosted a Community Partner Appreciation Luncheon on 4/14 with the CCSU Faculty Senate Community Engagement Committee. Guests represented 16 different organizations including a number of CCESR’s partners.

The John Lewis Institute for Social Justice

Over time the University desires to make the JLI self-sustaining by attracting grants and endowment funds that can meet its expenses. Your support of the John Lewis Institute will have a transformative impact on the lives of our students, and in turn, the work they do in their communities, our state, and our nation will bring life and new meaning to CCSU's mission: A modern public regional university in ambitious pursuit of knowledge, bold ideas, and innovative partnerships that advance social mobility and drive economic, cultural, and intellectual vitality in the communities we serve.

Office for Equity & Inclusion

Central Connecticut State University's Office for Equity & Inclusion (OEI) aims to cultivate a campus environment that is equitable, inclusive, and respectful to enable students, faculty, and staff to realize their full potential.

OEI works with faculty, staff, and students to develop and maintain a community of inclusion. We act in a transparent manner guided by respect and professional standards. We also provide training and support on diversity, Title IX, and sexual harassment prevention. OEI is committed to tenets of due process, fairness, quality service, and discretion.

The purpose of the OEI is to build an inclusive community where students, staff, and faculty can participate in a free and respectful exchange of ideas without fear. In establishing this community of understanding, safety, and inclusion, we are preparing students to serve in a diverse world.

Center for Community Engagement & Social Research
CENTRAL CONNECTICUT STATE UNIVERSITY

The Center for Community Engagement & Social Research brings together the important work of community engagement and applied research. Our primary goal is to integrate teaching, research, and service through community engagement. Additionally, we want all students to engage in multiple experiential learning opportunities, for faculty to develop scholarship with a community focus, and for our community to work with us to address their most pressing needs.

The John Lewis Institute for Social Justice seeks to empower a new generation of leaders to follow his call to build a better and more just world, one that is marked by hope and focused on liberation. In doing so, we find hope and strength in his effort, voiced in the language of justice and lived in a life of service. Our collective work is designed to create intellectual and civic spaces to allow for a deeper understanding of the roots of injustice, while also fostering and nurturing efforts to eliminate it. We aim to do this by helping participants develop as social justice leaders and advocates and helping them explore opportunities in public service. We encompass the issues of all people and seek to work for the oneness of humanity. We take as our mandate Rep. Lewis’s observation and challenge that “ordinary people with extraordinary vision can redeem the soul of America.”

BLACK NATIONAL ANTHEM - LIFT EVERY VOICE & SING

James Weldon Johnson, 1871 - 1938

Lift every voice and sing,
"Til earth and heaven ring,
Ring with the harmonics of Liberty;
Let our rejoicing rise
High as the listening skies,
Let it resound loud as the rolling sea.
Sing a song full of the faith that the dark past has taught us,
Sing a song full of the hope that the present has brought us;
Facing the rising sun of our new day begun,
Let us march on 'til victory is won.

Stony the road we trod,
Bitter the chastening rod,
Felt in the days when hope unborn had died;
Yet with a steady beat,
Have not our weary feet
Come to the place for which our fathers sighed?
We have come over a way that with tears has been watered,
We have come, treading our path through the blood of the slaughtered,
Out from the gloomy past,
'Til now we stand at last
Where the white gleam of our bright star is cast.

God of our weary years,
God of our silent tears,
Thou who has brought us thus far on the way;
Thou who has by Thy might
Led us into the light,
Keep us forever in the path, we pray.
Lest our feet stray from the places, our God, where we met Thee,
our hearts drunk with the wine of the world, we forget Thee;
Shadowed beneath Thy hand,
May we forever stand,
True to our God,
True to our native land.

Ken D. Coopwood, Sr., Ph.D., CDE, HBDICP, CDROI Professional
National Diversity Educator, Writer and Leader
CEO, Coop Di Leu, LLC

“Dr. Coop” is the CEO of Coopwood Diversity Leadership & Education Universal (Coop Di Leu). His success has resulted in many honors over the past decade. His honors include: One of 12 People to Know (2012), Society for Diversity Member of the Year (2014), and National Visionary Award (2015). His 2016 research on chief diversity officers drew the most substantial response rate for such an initiative. His February 2017 webinar: “Clarifying Campus Climate Initiatives,” drew 350+ attendees. His 2018 Bootcamp was the first nationwide to address, and train about chief diversity officers lived experiences. His chapter, Engaging Faculty in Campus Transformation: The Diversity Fellows Program, was published in 2018 by the Association for the Advancement of Educational Research International (AAERI).

He holds certifications as an International Return on Investment Professional, Certified Diversity Executive, Cultural Competency in Behavioral Health, and a Brain Dominance Practitioner. He is a 4-time senior-level diversity executive in higher education. He provides professional development and consultation to university professionals, domestic and abroad.

Dr. Coop is the developer and principal researcher of the Diverse Organizational Impact and Transformation (DOIT) certification, a collaboration with Diverse Issues in Higher Education. He is a former board member and Co-Chair for Professional Development for NADOHE and a board member of the Society for Diversity. He is also the developer of the Awareness & Readiness for Engagement Audit (AREA) instrument for pre and post-climate search inquiry and preparation.

Dr. Coopwood believes that diversity management is a prerequisite for effective change. Knowledge of people (cultural, psychological, and spiritual) is often absent when implementing structural reform. He asserts that people are often more interested in their perceptions of others than others’ personal realities. He is known for his belief and educational philosophy: “In a nation where speculations of money, health, poverty, and policy rank supreme in the conscience of the public mind, the most tragic and destructive display of human judgment is still that which conceals the absolute truth of a people,” and thrives on serving organizations via simple truth as expressed by Bowman and Deal, “Problems arise when [a] structure [does not] align with circumstances.”

Ericka M. Alfred
Political Science and Spanish Major

Ericka Alfred is from Norwich, CT and is a double major in Political Science and Spanish student.

Ericka believes that Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. in and beyond his lifetime has become the largest renowned Civil Rights Activists. Her participation in scholarship events and gleaning from countless documentaries, Ericka believes that he has ultimately motivated not only the African American community but America as a whole. Dr. Martin Luther King Jr has also influenced Ericka into a direction of wanting to make positive changes within her community and the world.

Tom Boots
Consultant and Executive Coach

Tom Boots is a consultant and executive coach focusing on organizational development and business management. He brings more than 25 years of experience leading and implementing organizational development and learning projects for private industry, nonprofits, and the Federal Government. He earned an MA degree in Human Development from the University of Kansas with an emphasis in organizational behavior management.

When serving as a coach, Tom’s background in behavior analysis enables him to help individuals clarify and leverage their motivations and increase their chances of aligning personal and organizational goals, pinpointing behaviors that lead to success, and improving communication and other critical skills. He has worked with clients in a wide range of industries and with diverse personal and technical backgrounds.

Ex-Officio Member
Dear Central family,

We are gearing up for the new academic year, and I invite you to take part in as many of the scheduled “welcome” events as possible. In the coming days, you will receive an invite to Opening Day and Convocation festivities scheduled for Sunday, August 28.

New this year—a New Year Kickoff for all employees! On Thursday, August 25, you are invited to attend the activities between 9 a.m. until 3 p.m. in Alumni Hall.

A series of short information sessions will serve to remind or inform you on how best to navigate the essential services on campus. The Office of Wellness will lead us in a self-care workshop and relaxation exercise. Nationally recognized motivational speaker, author, and educator Nancy Hunter Denney will help us recognize how each one of us makes a difference in the lives and successes of our students.

I do realize that some of you will be focused that day on the Orientation for transfer students, and I thank you for that continued dedication. The scheduling conflict could not be avoided. If you find you are available to drop in for a session, lunch, and/or the closing festivities, I encourage you to do so.

Throughout the day and during the final activity we will be drawing names for some great CCSU swag and gifts and at the conclusion everyone will leave with a CCSU shirt. Please register by clicking here so we make sure there is a shirt for you.

This is a time to connect, catch up, and enjoy our campus community. I hope to see you on the 25th, if not before!

Sincerely,

Zulma R. Toro

Dear Central family,

June 19, we will commemorate Juneteenth National Independence Day, which marks the end of slavery in the United States. Also known as Freedom Day, Jubilee Day, Liberation Day, and Emancipation Day, Juneteenth has been recognized and celebrated throughout the United States since June 19, 1865—the day when the Union Army arrived in Galveston, Texas, to enforce the Emancipation Proclamation and free the last enslaved African Americans.

The Connecticut General Assembly has established Juneteenth as a legal state holiday. Governor Ned Lamont signed the bill into law. This year, Central will be closed to recognize the day formally. There will be no classes, administrative offices closed, employees designated as Level 1 may be required to work.

As we celebrate this important milestone in U.S. history, I hope you will take some time to reflect on the nation-changing impact of Juneteenth. It is not only a celebration of freedom, but also one of opportunity, equity, and access. Institutions of higher education have a responsibility to cultivate such access, and I am so proud of the Central family's ongoing efforts to create a safe, welcoming, and respectful environment for all.

Sincerely,
Zulma A. Toro
President

Please join us for an End of Year Celebration and Commencement Thank You

LIGHT UP THE NIGHT

NATIONAL SUICIDE PREVENTION AWARENESS MONTH

Join us as we recognize Suicide Prevention Awareness Month. The Brotherhood Initiative cordially invites you to attend our annual Light Up the Night: Suicide Prevention Rally. The event will take place on Tuesday, September 27th (6:30 pm-8pm). This is a campus-wide event and we are seeking broad representation from students, faculty, staff, administrators, and the greater New Britain Community. Many of us have been impacted by the act of suicide. If not only robs us of a loved one, but we are also impacted by the loss. Everyone who attends will be receiving a glow-stick to help us “light up the night” and a lapel pin (whistles supplies last). A procession will begin at Arute Field Parking Lot and will end in front of Davidson Hall.

Tuesday, September 27, 2022

Procession meeting location:
Arute Field Parking Lot (6:30 pm)
Program location:
Davidson Hall (Entrance) (7:15 pm)

WHY JOIN THE RALLY?

• About 11% of college-aged young adults (ages 18-25) report that they’ve had serious thoughts about suicide.
• White males accounted for 66.6% of suicide deaths in 2020. In 2020, firearms accounted for 52.6% of all suicide deaths.
• Historically, Black Americans have died by suicide at lower rates than the general population, but the rates of suicide among Black people, particularly youth, have increased in recent years.
• Indigenous communities, such as Alaskan Natives, have also had higher rates of suicide than the general population due to generational trauma, poverty, and stigma, among other factors.
• Youth who identify as LGBTQI are also at a higher risk for suicide than the general population.
• In 2020, men died by suicide 3.88x more than women. On average, there are 130 suicides per day.

SPEAKING PANEL:
MEETING THE CHALLENGES OF MANHPY BY BUILDING STRONG COMMUNITIES
TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 17, 2022
4:00 - 7:30 PM

Male students face many challenges along their journey to manhood. Health disparities, high rates of suicide and depression, lack of mental health contacts, suicide, and incarceration just to name a few. Boys and men are frequently judged, blamed, and criticized for their display of emotionality, yet we fail to hold societal norms and expectations accountable for its influence on the development of males. This year’s 14th Annual Brotherhood Men’s Health & Wellness Forum will examine the health of men through a community perspective. The theme of this year’s forum is “Serving Our Sons: Meeting the Challenges of Manhood by Building Strong Communities.” The free plenary session will examine key factors impacting male health and how a sense of community and connectedness can enhance efficacy, resilience, and success. The event will take place at a special event. Please join us in person or virtually.

The Brotherhood Initiative Presents:
First Generation Students: Creating Services & Initiatives To Help Them Succeed

Join Us in This Webinar From Innovative Educators

Nearly half of all college students are first-generation students. Many are unaware of their options until they arrive at college. This necessitates a greater understanding of college navigation, which is no problem because we can assist them with this. Yet, more crucially, it leads to a greater demand for agency and money to seek intellectual, social, and emotional support. Developing programs and services to address this lack of knowledge, agency, and capital is crucial to supporting these students as they enter and progress through college.

A roundtable discussion with local indigenous communities about our communal effect on the land and its people.

Since the time immemorial, Connecticut has been home to various indigenous nations who have stewarded its land and watersways: Nipmuc, Paquot, Schaghticoke, Pequots, Mohegan, and many others. CCSU, located within Wangunk homelands and bordering Tunxis homelands, recognizes, celebrates, and respects the peoples who have been living and working on this land, as well as keeping its stories. Come hear members of the local Indigenous nations engage in a discussion about our communal effect on the land and its people.

You will hear from Elders and young people, from educators and storytellers, from memory keepers and social activists. You will hear from those who are rooted to this land and from those who made this land their new home.

Witch Hunting Is Not a Thing of the Past in Africa

Witch hunting is a thing of the past in the western world. Witch persecution is alluded to as a tragic episode that happened centuries ago. Incidentally, this is not the case in many parts of Africa. Witch persecutions and trials are ongoing incidents in the region. Witchcraft accusation is a form of death sentence in many countries. Across the continent, thousands, mainly women and elderly persons, are accused, tried, attacked, killed, imprisoned or hanged every year. In his presentation, Dr. Igwe will use several cases to illustrate the range of witch persecution and why this phenomenon persists in contemporary Africa.

Dr. Leo Igwe is a board member of the Humanist Association of Nigeria and Humanists International, UK. He holds a B.Phil and M.A. in philosophy from the School of Wisdom Seminary, Owerri and University of Calabar in Nigeria, and a doctoral degree in religious studies from the University of Bremen in Germany. He was a postdoctoral research fellow at the Department for the Study of Religions at the University of Copenhagen. Dr. Igwe is the director of the Advocacy for Alleged Witches, and chair the Critical Thinking Social Empowerment Foundation.

In a world where anyone can be a victim of sexual violence, Detective Allison B. Sullivan takes us into the mind of a sexual predator, the world of a victim, and what our society must do to address sexual crimes.

Allison B. Sullivan is a retired Detective who served with the Wethersfield Police Department for twenty years. Sullivan has specialized training and experience in investigating major crimes such as homicides, sexual assaults, kidnappings, robberies and fraud. She has oversight responsibility of registered sex offenders in her jurisdiction and has extensive sex crimes knowledge.

Telling HerStory

Dr. Kellie Byrd-Danso

Telling HerStory is designed to identify female mentors and role models that can make a difference in your college career. Come meet the women making a difference on your campus. Telling HerStory is a signature program of the CCSU Women’s Center. We identify outstanding women in our community and invite them to tell their story. They tell their story on who they are, how they became who they are, how they shaped or impacted their life, the challenges and triumphs of becoming a successful woman in their field and their goals for the future.

Dr. Kellie Byrd-Danso is a higher education professional with 20 years of experience in both two- and four-year college settings. In her role as Vice President for Student Affairs, Dr. Byrd-Danso has a Bachelor’s degree in Psychology from the University of Connecticut, a Master’s in Counseling/Student Development Higher Education from North Carolina State University, and a Doctorate in Higher Education Administration from Northeastern University.

Advertising is an over $250 billion a year industry.

We are each exposed to over 3,000 ads a day. The ads sell a great deal more than products. They sell values, images, and concepts of women and men, love and sexuality, popularity and normalcy. Sometimes they sell addictions.

Jean Kilbourne, Ed.D., internationally acclaimed media critic, author, and filmmaker, is known for her ability to present provocative topics in a way that is so entertaining and informative that it encourages dialogue. With sharp knowledge, insight, humor and commitment, she moves and empowers people to take action on their own and in society’s interest.

A collaboration of the Women’s Center and Counseling & Student Development

Latina Leadership and Personal Development
Group Presents

Latina Talk: Honoring Dr. Carmen Veloria
Associate Vice President for Academic Affairs

"You are one of us, Miss"

Dr. Carmen Veloria is an Associate Vice President for Academic Affairs at Central Connecticut State University (CCSU). Her work focuses on collaborative projects with organizations and educational stakeholders working to advance social justice for underserved students, working to advance economic and educational access equity and social justice. Having grown up as a low-income first-generation, and emergent bilingual student, she brings a lived experience understanding of the precarity educational access plays in the lives of students, families, and communities. This understanding and lived experience guided her approach to teaching, researching, leading, and working to provide opportunities for over 20 years.

Prior to CCSU, she worked at Saint Louis University in St. Louis, where she was a tenured professor in the Sociology Department and served as Chair of the Educational Department. Her advocacy research, teaching and leadership community service work focuses on expanding access to equity, diversity, and language use with respect towards, schools, and communities. She speaks on these topics both nationally and internationally. Her most recent work focuses on Latina student educational engagement outcomes and understanding and addressing the underrepresentation of Latina and Latina women in higher education settings.

A scholarship has been established in her name to support Latina students at Saint Louis University.
