

Central to Information Administration

Central's Undergraduate Certificate in Database Management introduces students to management information systems, programming, and both introductory and advanced database systems. This certificate allows professionals to enhance their technical skills and stay competitive in a rapidly evolving field. For undergraduate students, it lays a robust foundation in database management, ensuring you gain the expertise required for advanced study or immediate entry into the workforce.

Program Features

- 12-credit program
- Small class sizes
- Classes offered on-campus, online, and evenings
- Designed for working professionals
- State-of-the-art software and lab equipment
- Hands-on faculty with real-world experience
- Free on-campus childcare

What You'll Gain

- Broad understanding of core database concepts
- Ability to employing modern tools, methodologies, and practices
- Access to cloud computing academic accounts
- Cutting-edge skills to tackle industry challenges
- Access to highly qualified faculty with industry experience

The Database Management Certificate program is meticulously crafted to provide hands-on, practical experience that meets the current market demands. Join us to advance your career and academic goals with a curriculum that is both comprehensive and cutting-edge.

- Michael Gendron, PhD, Program Coordinator

Program Contact

Dr. Michael Gendron, PhD
Program Coordinator
860.832.3293
gendronm@ccsu.edu

ABOUT CENTRAL:

Central Connecticut State University is the largest university within the Connecticut State Colleges and Universities system. Founded in 1849, Central is also the state's oldest publicly funded university. Our campus is located in New Britain, Connecticut. Central is accredited by the New England Commission of Higher Education (NECHE).

